Elinora R. Leigley:
Her Diary for 1933.

Happy New Year! - may this year be the departure of depression!
Sunday, January 1, 1933

When we came home from the dance Dad & Hugo & I & I drove Ruth home & had the unusual experience of driving alone thru the deserted diamond at 3 A.M! Slept well & felt fine when I got up. Hugo woke at 10, looking bleary-eyed but he managed to go to church & I went with him. Heino came to our very good duck dinner after I had fed him. I took him & the other two to Joe's & she & the two joined us in a walk. Stopt in here afterward - and Pete & Hugo came in from their walk.
Again I thanked Pete for his help last night. Ate a light supper & Hugo went to church & I read.
Chasely came in to discuss dance & later Phil & Mary came. Phil at 10.

Monday, January 2, 1933

Helene came over to see Luke in his bath again - I shall miss her when school starts tomorrow. Did a big washing - nice sun. After lunch I finished up my last year's diary & put it away in the case with the others! Fed Luke & tried for the first time to get him to drink out of a cup - not much success. Then Mary came and I got to work darning stockings. We had tea later. The children out doors. Charley came in with Hugie from their walk. After supper I wrote to Janet Montgomery, Ma & Ma. Then Mary came back & Hugie mixed us a Collins & we four had a very merry talk.

Tuesday, January 3, 1933

Did my work promptly & went down town to exchange the diary. Luke F. gave Ma! After lunch I rested till two & after feeding Luke I got to work painting Ellen's bed, in the dining room. Gen came in for a while & interrupted me & then I brought Luke down & he got fussy so by five thirty when I finished the first coat I was worn out. After supper Hugie took Mary, Helene, Charley & me to Uncle Dick's, but he was not there so we went to Ida's & drank beer in her untidy living

Wednesday, January 4, 1933

Kept late but had little washing so managed to go down town before lunch. After lunch I took a nap - Ellen & what Henry out with Jane & after I had done with Nikes I got to work on the bed again. Martha came & so the time flew by. We had tea & Nikes was very good & ate.
May & Heenie came in later! After supper Nigie went to bowl & Heenie went out so I was
and stretched on the avenue port & read the back numbers of the Post

Thursday, January 5, 1933

Went down town before lunch mostly for the walk. I am now bathing Nikes in the big tub & he loves it. After lunch I took a nap, Henry playing in quiet beside me and after attending to Nikes, once more attached my paint job.
No one was here, Nikes was fussy & I forgot to put the Revision stew in the oven - every thing wrong! After supper Nigie took the Sheffers & me to Mr. Seig's cabin in fishing club to a very nice party-hearts & games. Much fun was there. Our crowd & Curtis, Downer & Beames.
Home at 2.

Friday, January 6, 1933

Slept late, but got all my work done before lunch time. And afterward I took a nap, having but with Jane. After I had fed Tulsa I took time up to Martha's. It was such a lovely day I left him outside all the time. Ellen was supposed to meet Henry & Jane but she appeared at Martha's with tears in her eyes, so I let her stay there & she was very good. I enjoyed the visit immensely & Martha is such a dear - so different than my other friend Grace. Mary & Heinie came to supper and afterward we played bridge - I won! - & had highball until I felt "wiggly" - it was late.

Saturday, January 7, 1933

Slept late again and couldn't get anything done right - even forgot to send Ellen to dancing school. After lunch I did a little mending, while Hugie mended the crib. After I had fed Tulsa Hugie took us all to Fork Haven to see Uncle Fred - but, as usual he wasn't there. We did see Aunt Dorothy however & had a very nice visit with her. And I enjoyed the ride. I hurried to put the children to bed, then Heinie, Hugie & I went down to Uncle Fred's dinner. He usually went to sleep afterward & Phil went out so we four came home & drank a farewell highball.

Sunday, January 8, 1933

Heinie went off early to drive to Tyrona with Mary & the children.
Too bad they are gone - the hot-days are over now. I did a lot of work before time for our beef roast dinner. Huey went to walk with Charley & fed Niles & did a few odds & ends up stairs, talking to Heinie until I could get Niles up again and fix the beds for the children. I hated to put away the bassinet - I wonder if I shall ever use it again!
Huey & Charley came in & rough housed with the children - Niles watching them delight-edly. After supper I went to church with Huey & nearly fell asleep. We read when we got home

Monday, January 9, 1933

Up early - back to the normal life once more. Did my work & went down town, but had to beat the children first as they wanted to go with me. They were brattish. After lunch I paid some bills & went up to feed Niles when Mrs. Lortimer came to call. She came upstairs and stayed a while.
After she left I mended drib shirts & darned towels by machine. K. Cliffe came in with Ellen after school & there was bed time. After supper every one went to bed & I started to clean up the toys. Jo & Pete came in & helped mow the tree, Huey.

Tuesday, January 10, 1933

I was feeding Mike his cereal when Ellen brought Jimmy in with blood streaming out of his nose! He had been hit by a snowball thrown by "Dorothy" Duke. Bah! After lunch I read my murder story in the new Post till feeding time & attached it again afterward instead of doing my mending, until Martha came. I made cheese things for tea like Martha had at her house - Heinie came in later - also Gus. After dinner I finished the mending, alone, in spite of interruptions from Ellen who couldn't sleep. Later Angie came home & I took a little walk with

Spilled a glass of water on Dorothy but she jumped quickly.
Wednesday, January 11, 1933

I could hardly pry Ellen away from doll house to go to Mrs. Ward for dancing lesson she missed Saturday - this a funny little thing. Got my work done in time to go down town - met Kate & Grace at bank corner. After lunch I napped, but Mike & I did a little more mending. Later I wrote to Ma, with a million children sitting around me. And got things ready for bridge but in spite of Heinie bringing Jane Goodrich in. After supper Angie went to bank & the girls arrived - Kate & I beat Gus & Grace! I gave them cocoa, sandwiches, Earl roll.

Thursday, January 12, 1933

A.M. as usual except that I spent a lot of time trying in vain to get the red stain from her last gipper suit out of Ellen's new dress I made her with and color. I went down town just for the walk - a nice brisk day. After lunch I sent Henry out to find Jane & then took a little nap before time to get the fatty up. Then I got to work cutting out pyjama tops for Hugie. Such enormous things! It took me all afternoon with intermissions to peel apples, etc. and I was tired by supper time & got Hugie to give me a drink. After supper Hugie was actually able to stay home & we had a fine time reading a digesting in the Post.

Friday, January 13, 1933

Slept late and did very little work. Battening Nikes is no work at all his quite a load to carry around. He weighs 23 pounds. After lunch Henry was invited to Peter's so I had a peaceful afternoon spent mostly on the davenport. When I brought Nikes down he bounced cheerfully in his jumper until the grew dark when I took him on the davenport with me. After supper Hugie had to go out for a short while and I read - and continued to read when he came home. Hugie's ~~new~~ a nice husband - I wonder how I had sense to choose him.

Saturday, January 14, 1933

Slept late again and got Pattie to help me with the big washing. After lunch Hennie took the children down town so I had a nice nap - had a hard time waking up to feed Mike. Then Hennie came with her sewing & I started a pair of Sox for Mike & Ellen made a coat for a doll. We were just about to eat tea when Uncle F. came in. A nice visit from him - "chaffers are a drawback sometimes." After supper Mary & Bill & Joe Connick came. Joe was at dinner so Joe, Bill, Hugie & I played bridge while Mary & Hennie conversed. Ray & Scott

Sunday, January 15, 1933

Got breakfast for the children.
Ellen in tears when her Daddy went to church so I sent her on after him. Later I sent Harry out to play & he calmly joined Hugie & Ellen in church! Hennie had dinner with us - this is Mother's birthday. Then she fed Mike while the children & I drove Hugie & Charley & Harry B. to the top of the mt. to walk.
Then Hennie took children for a walk & Mike & I were left peacefully alone. I read to the children later. Hennie had Hugie & me to her house to supper. It was too late for church. We all came over here & I wrote in diary & was ~~laid~~ when Mike cried at 9:30 to bed.

Wrote to Ma after lunch -

Monday, January 16, 1933

A big washing and a nice warm day to dry it. After lunch Ellen went off to school & Peter came to play outdoors with Henry. So I took a short nap and after feeding Mike I sewed up one of Hugie's pyjamas. Such long seams! Quite a job and with Ellen & Katherine coming in at four and all of them raising such a hullabaloo I did not get more than one finished. After supper I went to the Parish meeting with Hugie and was amused by the discussions there. Uncle F. was elected vestryman for the 50th time. We went for a soda afterward.

Tuesday, January 17, 1933

A.M. so usual except that I took the child down town with me as Hugie was at Kiwanis - no, he was at the Frost Co. banquet. After lunch I read "Fog" the murder story which just came and then fed Mike. After that I got to work on pyjamas and got a lot done as Henry was alone playing in, so it is rainy. And Mike, of course, was no trouble. After supper Hugie announced that he & Charley were going to Lock Haven! I was quite put out, but really had no voice - sitting alone, finishing the pyjamas & reading.

Wednesday, January 18, 1933

A scize with Ellen's Temper when I took her skates away because she didn't obey. Later I went down town but missed Hugie & we each walked home alone. After lunch I succumbed to a nap until feeding time when Betty & little Stuart guest arrived.
The children played out and Betty & I knitted and really, I enjoyed it very much. We had tea & Heinie joined us. After supper I read a magazine while Hugie read the paper & then we went for a walk, stopping at Pete's & Jo's long enough to shoot target in their cellar. Stopt at Blain's, too.

Thursday, January 19, 1933

Morning uneventful - Ellen & Henry eat up oats again as they annoy Hugie at breakfast. I went down town & met Hugie. After lunch I wrote to Lisa.
While I was feeding kids Gen & Jane arrived. The children played out & Gen & I had a very pleasant afternoon. Cousin Nan Ray came in just a tea time & joined us in a cup & cheese toast. She was very agreeable, too. After supper I wrote to Betty Appel & to Aunt Annie Eberman. Then Jo & Cat came & with Heinie we had a game of bridge.
Hugie is ~~happy~~ but joined us sundown.

Friday, January 20, 1933

Discovered at 8:20 Ruth's absence and from then on my morning was hectic. After lunch I washed lunch, breakfast & party dishes, fed Toots & did the rest of my morning wash. By four I was ready to sit down and was delighted when Hugie came to take us all for a ride. A nice ride to Madis's suburb gap. Found Ruth here when we got back & she cooked a nice dinner for us plus John Lee & Hennie. Martha is in Platte. We had fried scallops. Then we played bridge - under John's instructions and finally at 12 I thought kids down, put him on the table where he required.

Everything going smoothly but I didn't have time to go down town. After lunch I napped while the children were with Hennie. Then Ellen went to dancing school & soon Henry & I followed with the Cliffs. And I saw Ellen dance. She was cute but not graceful. When I got home Betty & Stuart were here with Hennie & we all had tea. At six-thirty Hugie & I, all dressed in our best, went to an unique dinner party at Uncle Fred's Cat House. Ward Harris, Grace, Pessy & Mr. Seig! Five courses, sherry & creme de menthe! Then we talked, so ~~quietly~~ ^{loudly} hard (!) until 11 and really enjoyed it.

Sunday, January 22, 1933

A dark dreary day but I managed to get up fairly early & to go to church with Hugie. Worked afterward. After dinner I fed Mike & read until four & Henry & Ellen. Heine came over with her sewing and knitted. Hugie, Charley and Henry came home early from their walk & we all sat in the kitchen and had a drink. Later Heine got supper & she & Hugie went to church. Pete & Jo came in for a little while & we enjoyed Sat. night parties. Then I read silly magazine stories when I should have been writing Dan.

A.M. as usual, but when I went down town Hugie had left word that he was at a meeting, so I walked lonely home & he came in as we finished lunch. I took a nap later, being good for nothing else. After I had fed Mike I had a hectic time trying to put things in order on the third floor with the door bell & telephone constantly ringing. One ring was nice, however, a lonely zipper "baby hunting" from Martha for Mike. Now he cannot get out in the cold. After supper Hugie went back in & I wrote a long letter to Mr. Heine came over & we read.

Had time to wash the children's very dirty wrappers this morning and took Hugie & Heinie to the Bush House before lunch. They are going to the church convention. After lunch I got in the car & went for Janet whom I took to the college to the movies to see Norma Shearer & Clark Gable in "Strange Interlude".

It was good, altho we didn't like C. Gable so much. Then I treated her to tea. She was very congenial & I enjoyed the afternoon immensely. After eating shredded wheat for supper I went to Heinie's to play bridge with Katherine Day Margaret Walker. It was nice too, altho more talk of babies than

The little fire was out, but Ruth had it going again before I came down. I darned their new work & then took the children down town to buy material to make Ellen 2 dresses. I was only going to get one but she liked one & I liked another. After lunch I wrote to Martha & thank her for the "bunting". And after I had fed Nick I remodeled it, using the cap to make sleeves. I did a lot more mending and when I was putting the children to bed Hugie came home. But no fun. Fortunately we had a fight at supper about his spanking Henry till he was black & blue. We hardly spoke all evening. Ruth

Hugie is still mad at me. It makes me miserable. I walked down town to meet him but still he didn't cheer up. I am all upset about going to movies tonight. Heino was going with me until Charley asked her. Hugie doesn't want to see it. I did some mending & fed Mike. Then Aunt Carrie's Niece Bill came in for about an hour. Nice to see them. At four Hugie came home to take us all for a ride. I talked about movies but he didn't help me decide. He went to a hospital dinner. I alone, ate the lobster he brought me yesterday. Delicious. I cut out a dress for Ellen.

Friday, January 27, 1933

Hugie is nicer now & I feel better, did my washing etc & went down to meet him. After lunch I wrote in my diary, etc, fed Mike & then went to give with Henry, leaving Mike with Ruth. Ellen came to give after school. Just was there, too - children, thank goodness - & we had a nice time sewing, chatting & drinking tea. a really snowy day outside. After supper Hugie took me to the movie debated movies - Ann Harding & Leslie Howard in 'Animal Kingdom' and we both enjoyed it very much. ^{am} but cat.

Saturday, January 28, 1933

Before I had bathed twice Betty Martin appeared!
My, it was nice to see her.
She went down town with me later. On the way home the fire engines passed us as we went & the fire - the Hennings oil burned had exploded - such smoke!
After lunch we talked, but Hulse & Heinie came over with her hunting. After the people came for Betty too soon. Later I put the children to bed a little early to be ready for my dinner party - Levin, Nan & Phil.
It was very nice. Pete came in, & Heinie & we had a very pleasant evening. Phil nice.

Sunday, January 29, 1933

Could not make it to church this morning but Ellen went to keep Huguie company. Phil dropped in before dinner but didn't get a drink!! After dinner I fed twice & then Heinie & I took them all for a walk. Quite cold today when we got home Betty Moser was here & we had tea & tried to plan the kind of house Heinie & I would like to build.
Later the men came in from their walk. After supper I went to church with Huguie. Miss Lallie Beumer has died at last.
Read & Huguie fixed things.

Monday, January 30, 1933

Did my work as usual - bathed my dear little, fat little twins with so much pleasure as usual - and went down town. After lunch I wrote a long letter to Ma, fed twins & then Olivia & Jackie came. The children played that & Olivia & I talked & discussed many things. And then tea & the cake I bought at the food sale - Agnes's. Very nice afternoon - Heinie joined us later. After supper Henry & I were peacefully reading when Phil came in. He got no drink - I felt a little sorry - He didn't stay long Heinie came over & we all read.

Tuesday, January 31, 1933

Took Henry & Ellen down town with me before lunch. And after lunch I finished the famous murder story in the Post. Jane came to play with Henry. Fed twins & then settled on davenport to smoke, but got pretty sleepy & did not get much done. Betty Gost came in with tickets for me to sell for another doggone card party. Then I put the children & their colds to bed. Peter & Heinie came to supper & then we played bridge & drank highballs & got silly & had a lot of fun. It is in Phil's with Peter.

Wednesday, February 1, 1933

The child's colds are much better today - viosterol keeps them from getting bad. Went down town when my work was done. After lunch I took a nap while Henry played quietly alone. Then I fed Mike. Soon Deborah Pelletier came - on in vitality - with her sewing & we had a very pleasant afternoon in spite of the terrible, wet weather outside. We even discussed being a widow. We had tea of course & Ellen brought Katharine in with her & Heinie joined us. After supper Maggie went to a man's card party at the luncheon & I paid bills & cleaned up my desk. Heinie's bus-

Thursday, February 2, 1933

ground. Very dry and a bright sun - oh, dear. I had so much washing I could not go down town. After lunch I wrote to Ma, fed Mike & then Henry, Mike & Sweet Cat & went down town - paid my bills, had a soda, much to Henry's delight and walked home by Bishop & Wilson streets. Cat's & my tongues wagging fast. Katherine Shattcross was here fixing a dress for Heinie. After supper Agnes came to stay with the children while Henry took Heinie & me to see Fred & Marie & Claudette Colbert in "Tonight is Ours" - fair - fine

Friday, February 3, 1933

Let the children play indoors as it is nasty out & they still have the sniffles. I went down town to meet Sug. After lunch I took a nap but after I had fed Nukes I got busy putting things away on the third floor & mending. After supper Hugie & Minnie went out & I was contemplating a lonely evening when in came Janet with her knitting following a slight suggestion of mine this afternoon - also this morning, meeting Nuke & I had said "Come down now!" & to behold, he walked in soon after Janet. And so I had a very nice talkative

Saturday, February 4, 1933

A.M. much as usual but the afternoon exceedingly different. Hugie packed up much bedding & food
for three day hike to Fishing Creek! And in the meantime Minnie & I donned heavy boots & step & out ourselves to Spring Lake.
Trg. it was pretty with the snow falling fast.
We had a very nice walk about six miles and I was pleased at my own "staying power". Minnie had supper with me and afterward we read rather lazily and went early to bed & it felt good.

Sunday, February 5, 1933

lots & lots of snow - I wonder how Hugs likes it. The children & I had a jolly breakfast & then they went out to help Himmie shovel the roads. I went to church. Himmie had dinner with us. I fed chicks & then got all the campers' food together for Harry Gross to take to Fishing Creek. Himmie beat me badly at Russian Banks. The children played happily - Hugs had Ellen's little slippers on for the first time & was a screamer. Later I had supper with Himmie - much talk of old times - then we came over here & I worked at my desk after lunch Hugs & I hurried down town & got my hair trimmed.

Monday, February 6, 1933

We all slept till nearly eight and Ruth had the fires going nicely when I finally got to breakfast. Lawrence McMillan called up - he had seen the men at Fishing Creek & they were fine. After lunch I sent Hugs out in the snow & took a little nap before feeding chicks. Then Margaret Walker (Mrs. Neil) came over with her baby at my invitation & we had a very agreeable time talking, cooking & drinking tea. She is very nice. I had supper with Himmie & then Cat & Jo came here to play bridge. We talked a lot too and it was one when I finally did

Tuesday, February 7, 1933

Another nice late sleep and I couldn't get my work done in time to take Henry & Ellen down town as I had promised.

I took a nap while Henry played quietly as it is raining. Ted took and then mended zipper suits while Henry played & talked a blue streak. Always I was expecting my big Hugie but he did not arrive until six after Heinie had gone to the Club to bring them home. I was glad to see him again & the children were excited.

After supper Phil came in. Hugie gave us a drink & later while Hugie was bathing Phil & I had a serious talk. ^{to Friday} 11:30

Wednesday, February 8, 1933

A terrible calamity while I was washing dishes this A.M. He fell off the table! I was scared, especially as he got such a sickly color & out of control. Dad he got under better before I put him to bed.

I took the children down town with me. After lunch I napped, Henry nice & quiet. Then he went over to the Blair's to Jane & it began to snow. Thilo was fine.

Deborah came & brought a piece of delicious cake. I like Deborah. Quite obliging & is raging outside.

After supper Hugie had to bed & Heinie went to Dr. May's Thilo. I started happily at home & I

Thursday, February 9, 1933

Nikes is all right in spite of his fell, but we all have our colds still with us. After my work was done I went down town & nearly froze - 10°. After lunch I took a nap. Henry stayed in - he got enough of the cold this morning. After I had fed Nikes I made oil cloth envelopes to keep my knives in and fiddled around doing a little of every thing and enjoying my two little ones. After supper we went to Glen's to the bridge club. Grace & I won.
At first we nearly froze & then we moved in front of an open fire & nearly cooked.
But enjoyed it all very much.

Henry drove to Philiz with Jane goodnight a teacher

Friday, February 10, 1933

In my way down town I stopped at the Goots' to give Betty the tickets for her card party which I cannot sell to my bridge club. Too bad, but I can't insist as I never buy their tickets. After lunch I sent Henry out for a while & took my inevitable nap.
After Nikes was settled I sent out another dress for Ellen. Henry came in & then wanted to go out again when Ellen came home.
Goloshes! I'll be glad when summer comes. Tried to get someone to stay here as we could go to wrestling match, but finally stayed home & fixed dinner & etc.

Tried to sleep late, in vain - got Ruth to help me with the wash & finally my work was done. We went off volun-taries after lunch & the children went out to play & I was able to rest for a few minutes..
 While I was feeding Mike Peggy Warner arrived with her son & daughter & we smoked & smoked together. Jo kept in to & had tea with us. Has called up every body to get company today! Hughie took a walk with Charley - played with children. After supper Hughie & I went to Hoping & Valley State 4 1/2 - K.C. 2 1/2. Was so hot.
 Brought Phil & K. Shallen comes with no other drifts. Made cheese sandwiches & left. In the

Sunday, February 12, 1933

Got the children up & sent them over to Kevin's empty house to play while I slept a little more. Finally had to get their breakfast. Bathed Mike and did a little washing but was able to sit & read the papers superfluously before dinner. Hughie went to walk & the children went with the Wintners so I peacefully slept 1 1/2 hours after feeding Mike while he lay peacefully in his bed. It was wonderful! Charlie came in after the walk. Later I got some supper for Hughie who then went to church. I read. When we were going to bed Kevin came home, happy.

Monday, February 13, 1933

A.M. much as usual. Lots of snow for the children to play in. At lunch Hugo & I ate the alligator pear that Heini brought me from Phila. After lunch I took a nap - Hugo out doors. Then Ed & Mike & got all settled with my sewing before Martha finally arrived. Time to have her here again. We had tea of course. Heini came in later. I felt quite blue before dinner because everyone was going to leave me tonight, but afterward I wrote to Ma and then read and really had quite a nice time. Called up Dr. Dale about Mike's fall as Ma had urged me to. No harm.

Tuesday, February 14, 1933

Found a lovely Robinson valentine at my breakfast table. Henry went off early to Jenie's kindergarten & a party. Ellen went off to deliver her valentines. I bathed Mike without an audience for a change. After lunch I got ready to go to the Sally Rand & a very nice card party given by Betty Gato's S.S. class. My club wouldn't go, but Deborah's club was there & I was with them mostly. Phil came in after supper & says that his reunion party at F. Creek is off - thank goodness! Hugo had to go out. I went on to Heini's & mended her clock & went to see her at R. Park.

Wednesday, February 15, 1933

Did my work and went down town to get some thread - & to meet my beloved. After lunch Henry played happily out doors by himself & I peacefully kept them. I finally made myself go up to feed Mike - after which I attached a pile of mending & chores upstairs. When it was time to get Mike up again we came down & I long tinned a dress for Ellen & put a patch on Hugo's B. V. Ds. Bathed the children - Ruth didn't come - misunderstood - so Heine unpleasantly took charge while Hugo & I went to the college to supper & to see Edna Best & Herbert Marshall in "Richard & Mary" - English prose.

wrote note to Katherine Bullock after luncheon.
Thursday, February 16, 1933

Charles Bullock died last night. He was only 25 - his wife is 22 & the baby 2! It is very sad. I did my work as usual but did not go down town. After lunch I took a nap and Glen came just as I got up to feed Mike. Jane & Henry played out doors & we snuggled in here. Mike Gen - we had a very enjoyable afternoon. Heine came in later & was nice. After supper I wrote to Ora and then Heine & Jo, who had supper with her, came over here to play bridge with us. I can't get over the sadness of Charles' death.

Friday, February 17, 1933

Mrs. Hayes died last night. Oh, dear, there is so much sorrow around here. I went down town after my work was done. After lunch I took a nap - damn it all - I'm getting fat & lazy. Then after feeding the birds I started to sew up Ellie's red dress but I should have known better than to do so on Friday. It was all wrong. And I feel so depressed by everything. But Hugo cheered me up with a drink. After supper Heinie, Cat & I went to call on the Hayeses and then Heinie & I stopped in to see Uncle Ted who was actually at home.

Saturday, February 18, 1933

Heinie got to work painting her bathroom & it really looks fine! I did a big washing as it is such a lovely drying day. After lunch I got all set to plant tulip bulbs & found the ground frozen! So I cut my toe nails instead until time to feed the birds. Then I went with Hugo & Heinie & Jo to see Lafayette get beaten by State - 28-0 at wrestling. Jo had supper with us - she had - which gave me a pain in my tummy later when we were playing bird ge - we were all sleepy & Jo went home soon after 10.

Sunday, February 19, 1933

I did not get there with tinks in time to go to church but was glad later when Hughie told me how Stuart talked about Charles Bullard and how he, Stuart, regretted.
After dinner I again took a little nap while the children went over to Heinie's.
After I had fed tinks Ellen & I took tinks for a walk.
Heinie stayed with Richard.
Heinie joined us later.
I stopped in to see Martha who has a very bad cold. he made some tea when we got home. I finally got the children's hair washed & them in bed. Heinie got supper. Hughie went to church.
I read -

Monday, February 20, 1933

When I went down town after my work was done I could hardly get past the place where they are pulling down old stone houses to build the P.O. It was fun to watch.
After lunch Harry played beautifully by himself on the piano & I napped until feeding time. When I had tinks in bed again Deborah came with her sewing & Heinie joined us in time for tea.
Heinie & I sent Martha some flowers - glad to get a chance to return some of her kindness.
After supper I wrote to Ma & Jane Hopkins while Hughie went down town. Then I snatched while he read paper.

Tuesday, February 21, 1933

After my work was done I took the club down town. Tuesday is their day to go as Hugie doesn't come home. We picked up Heini who came to lunch. Put Henry out & then read a continued story in the New Post. Ted & Mike after which I got to work sewing up Elsie's and hers again. This time I hope it fits. I took my all afternoon with the two pairs of bloomers & all. Mike jumped cheerfully in time to my sewing machine. Hugie had to go to a meeting & Heini came over with her sewing & I made button holes, finishing the dress. Signed on how to make

Wednesday, February 22, 1933

Did my work as usual. Went down town, mostly to see how the tearing down of the old buildings is progressing. After lunch I sent Henry out and succumbed to a nap. Ted & Mike & then Hugie came home to do some plumbing and I left the two cans in his care & walked the long way to Martha's, where I visited the sick. She is feeling a little better - it is a damn shame this side. Mrs. Cuff made us some tea & I gave Martha a jig saw puzzle for her birthday. After supper Uncle Fred came to call. I smoked. Later my is beat me at bill.

Thursday, February 23, 1933

A lovely day and I was filled with enthusiasm for my work. Went down town.
After lunch I hung the flowers on the wall for tulips but as it was sort of chilly & windy I did not go out again after I had fed Mike.
Henry deserted me very soon & went to Janie's. So I lazily worked on my sewing & was glad when Heinie came in. Ellen joined in & we tried to teach her to tell time - Henry was late coming home & full of tales of his doings. I took my shredded object over to Heinie's as Hugo was out & then she read to me while I worked - Virginia.

Friday, February 24, 1933

A beautiful spring day.
I took the children down town with me & bought them each a pair of Oxford.
They were very pleased.
After lunch Henry & I got to work planting my long neglected tulip bulbs. I fed Mike and washed the two zipper suits & then joined Henry again in the garden. I finished after 4:30 and as it was too late to start anything else I just sat on the deck part with Heinie and admired Mike in his jumper. Heinie came to supper & stayed here while Hugie & I saw George & Alice in

Saturday, February 25, 1933

A cold windy day again.
Ellen very fussy at six; she is getting a cold. Oh, dear.
I did my work as usual and did not go downtown after lunch. I sent the children over to Heinie's - too raining for them to go out & I took a peaceful nap until a little after feeding time!
I dreamed we had a lovely new house. Heinie & I had tea later & she helped me with my mending! Ellen sewed, too. Pete Shaffer came in, first time he has been in 3 weeks. Heinie kept the children (I couldn't get any one else!) while Hugie & I played bridge with Peg &

Sunday, February 26, 1933

Wondered whether Ruth would get back from her trip to Beech Creek to have her tonsils treated. But she did and I was able to go to church.
After dinner I fed the baby & then Hugie took us all, including Heinie for a very nice ride to Pt. Matilda, Phil-burg & Snowshoe. Charlie deserted him on the walk today, but his family gained by it. Heinie went out to supper, so I tried to make an omelet without great success. Hugie went to church and after I had cleaned up the mess I wrote to Ma & in ^{the evening} later Hugie read to me of ^{trapping} in Alaska

Monday, February 27, 1933

all the children have colds now thanks to Ellen. I had a big washing to do after I got Mike in bed and could not go down town. But after lunch I got plenty of walking miles of it, in fact, with Cat and Ray amusing. Then I went to see Martha who is still in bed, but improving. Katherine Wolfe was there & so many callers that my visit with Martha was not very satisfactory. When I got home I found the family had somehow survived in my absence. After supper I had lots of ideas of what I ought to be doing, but I just sat & read magazines.

Tuesday, February 28, 1933

After struggling to get the children to stop laughing during the night, I was woken up to find them running around in their cold room in their pyjamas. I spent the morning in the usual routine - didn't go down town. I took a nap after lunch & after feeding Mike I took him and Nung to Joe's - left them outside & Joe & I served & drank tea. Deborah came in, too. Ellen came there after school. In the evening Nung is bent out and I sewed up the blue dress & bloomers. He & Elaine later worked over their stamp collection. I sat as if I were watching coll.

Ask Wednesday.
Wednesday, March 1, 1933

Hugie & I went to church at 7:30 and later I had the pleasure of breakfasting with my family. Did my work and took Henry & Ellen down town with me so we couldn't go yesterday. After lunch I cut out a collar for Ellen's dress & then it was time to feed chicks. While doing so, Betty Gast arrived with little Stuart. The boys played out doors and Betty & I had a very pleasant visit. Winnie had supper over here & stayed home while Hugie & I went down town to see Will Rogers & Janet Gaynor in "Elate" which we enjoyed.

Thursday, March 2, 1933

Idle sort of day and it seemed to take my all A.M. to do my work. The children stayed in doors - too nasty out for their coughs. After lunch I took a nap, fed chicks & then forced myself to cover the ironing board. But that was about all I could force my self to do. After supper Hugie went to bowl and I went to Winnie's very nice party for the school teachers. 13 girls there - Dottie Schadt who likes so much. We had a literary treasure hunt - looking up quotations - and various interesting games and later, delicious food. Very nice party.

Friday, March 3, 1933

Another horrid gray day - I was glad when Deborah invited me to go out this afternoon. Left Ruth in charge after lunch and went in D's car to the college where she treated me to the movies. John Barrymore in "Joppy" - very good & humorous. Then I treated her to tea. She took me to the Children's Shop & introduced me to Mrs. Edmiston. I want her to sell my dresses. When I got home Mary Craig brought me some material to make a dress and all evening I struggled over it in vain - I need a pattern so we will have to wait for it. I also wrote to Ma.

Saturday, March 4, 1933

Still the gray dawn persists but I let the children go down town with Heinie as they seem all right now. After lunch Hugie & I went over to Heinie's to hear Franklin D. Roosevelt's address at the Inauguration. I put the hum in Ellen's dress at last, fed Wilco & then left them all in Ruth's tender care while I went with Hugie to the college to see State Lect. Syracuse at wrestling. We bought a tray for $1.45 at the Blair's store there & rode out on a deserted road for a drink of gin, then had a nice supper at the corner before going to the boxing. Still - 3!! a great day.

Sunday, March 5, 1933

got breakfast & bathed & fed. Hilse in time to go to church with Hugie and Ellen. He walked downtown for the paper, too. After dinner, Hugie had to go to a Elles meeting and it's such a lovely day. After I had fed Hilse, Heinie & I took him & Hugie & Ellen for a walk. He stops in to see Martha who gave us tea. Hilse, outside, got crampy so I hurried home with him. But later he was all right and it was Ellen who felt fussy. I feel depressed. Heinie got supper - Hugie went to church, I wrote up long - ^{then seemed} listed diary. While Hugie out.

Happy Birthday, Hilse!

Monday, March 6, 1933

Soon after breakfast Ellen got a terrible carache & Hugie took us to the doctor's - but he's gone. I fussed with her & bathed the baby, etc. and at noon we went to the doctor's again - nothing but old-fashioned ear ache from her cold he said. She did not go to school after lunch, but felt better. Hugie went over to Richard's and Ellen & I cut out a pair of pants for her & sewed them up. We got out some old tops & washed them & presented them to Hilse with great ceremony. He was happy even without a party. After supper I took my sewing over to Heinie - Hugie out.

Dr. Roosevelt ordered all baths closed indefinitely.
Tuesday, March 7, 1933

Ellen felt & looked sick so she stayed in bed until after my breakfast & then seemed better. I hurried thru Turk's baths & went in the rain to Mrs. Turk's where I got six of Caroline Valentine's paintings - very lovely ones - we drew them by numbers & I was lucky.
Mrs. Plesner brought me home.
Heinie came to lunch and afterward Ellen & I went out to sketch up three more pants.
Henry was at Jane's & Ellen was sweet & good. After supper Huguie & I went down town to see Claudette Colbert & Elissa Landi & Fredric March in "The Sign of the Cross" - very impressive. Henry had an elaborate letter.

Wrote to me today.

Wednesday, March 8, 1933

went to early lunch alone - Henry did not live up to my fears of last night & he & Ellen were both fine in the morning. I did my work as usual & went down town.
After lunch Ellen went back to school, but I kept Henry indoors and he played very nicely while I finished Ellen's pants. I forgot to say that yesterday Janet came in with her sewing.
It would have been nice today. A toy dog came for Turk from Wisconsin. Henry liked it more than Turk did. After supper Huguie stayed here while Heinie & I went to Grace Orr's & St.
Mary's Guild - wonderful evening.

Thursday, March 9, 1933

The children still have to play in doors - it is so very windy outside. Drove downtown & got things for my dinner party tonight - Mary & Bill McLouch. But after lunch when I was napping Aunt Helen phoned to say that Mary had a little son on Tuesday!
So the party is all off & I called up to countermand my orders!
After I had fed Niles, with blump's help - I did a great pile of darning - hurrying to get it done before the pattern for the Aigle dress arrives! Heinnie came to supper & stayed here while Nugie took me to see Helen Hayes & Gary Cooper in "Farewell to Arms" - I wept & enjoyed it.

Ellen terribly fussy while we played bridge -
Friday, March 10, 1933

Slept as late as I could and did as little work as possible. It is cold & very windy.
After lunch I took a nap, sending Henry over to Heinnie to play. Consequently I was late feeding Niles. Then I bushwhacked Niles daily - that pattern hasn't come yet.
Heinnie & Ellen came home early & we had tea. I felt like the diddums but Nugie gave me a drink. After supper Nugie & I went to church here. Heistand of Bloomsburg preached. I liked him. Then we went over to Heinnie's to play bridge with John DeLo Brown. Much stamp talk & snicker sandwiches. Bed at 11.

Saturday, March 11, 1933

Slept late & got Ruth to help with all the washing. Succeeded no help, tho, to bathe my little darling. A nice sunny day so the children went out to play at last. After lunch I wrote up my diary etc, fed Mike & then started to garock the Craig dress as I can wait no longer for a pattern. Heini's hoping it fits. Heini's brought her sewing over too. Later the children brought Richard in & played on the 3rd floor. After supper Pete & Jo came to play bridge. Augie gave us drinks & we had a very merry evening and at 11 with Limburger cheese

we all slept till 8, but I managed to get to church leaving Heini's to feed Mike. Ellen & Henry went, too & were very good. Ellen dried the dishes very nicely, I washed diapers & Heini's cooked dinner. We ate it over at her house. Ruth "has off" today for her mother's birthday. I fed Mike & then settled down to work. Heini's took a walk with Augie - the children played out so Mike & I held the fort. He is a little darling. Heini's got supper ready & then went to church with Augie. I wrote to Ma. And then got to work on my ag.

Monday, March 13, 1933

Had a big washing and it was rainy - takes the joy out of washing. Richard came over to play with the children & I wondered how Mike slept thru the noise. After lunch I tried to get several people to come & "sit with me" and finally got good-natured Kate. She brought her knitting & I smoked & we had a fine time. The children had to play indoors. After supper Hugie went out & Keene was working at home so I sat on davenport & sang & sang while I smoked - sang as I wouldn't think about my fingers getting stiff over the smoking. Bed late.

Tuesday, March 14, 1933

Another big wash, but it is sunny & warm out today. Keene came to lunch - Hugie at Keene's. I took a little nap afterward & was awakened by the early arrival of Betty Jo & little Stuart. We fed Mike & then Stuart pulled the anchor clock chain, springing each limb & it took Betty & me over half an hour to mend it. Hard goodness it was no worse! Then Martha came & we all had tea. But oh my, that Stuart's a brat! After supper Hugie went out & I went over to the Blains' to see about lamps for Edith Richmond. Keene came here with her sewing & I smoked hard & made up for time lost this

Wednesday, March 15, 1933

Rushed off to church after feeding Mike & helping E. & H. dress & taking my own bath all in 20 minutes.
Had breakfast with my family & a nice long morning to do my chores & get my smocking ready to sew up. Worked on it all afternoon and when Helen Blair came over for a little visit I hardly stopped but she understood. And then when it was time to put the children to bed I found it was much too big & disarranged.
But Heinie & Hugie & I went to a supper at the Parrish House & I came home & ript the yoke with much energy & sewed it in again while Hugie played with his stamp collection. Bed late.

Thursday, March 16, 1933

Did my chores without much ambition - I am weary from working to finish this dress today. And after lunch I got to work on it once more and at five had it finished - praises be!
I ironed it and it does look nice. Cat Loue dropt in & I made her admire it. Hugie took it up at supper time. And afterwards he took me to see "Forty second Street" down town.
It was a fair movie and I felt in a wonderful, free mood - so did Hugie, until we got home - Tina & Heinie were using my sewing machine & he & I read & he & I had a was feeling fine until after Hilma's bath when Mary Craig called up to say the dress is too big & I shall have to fix it - whereupon I was sunk - managed to cut Ellen's hair, too, before lunch & afterward took a nap. Fed Hilma & got to work on Ma's drilile and Martha came with her knitting we had tea & later she came upstairs with me while I put the children to bed & received much entertainment. She stayed to supper

- fixed apters - as Hugie had described to go with John to the toping. Martha went home when Heinio & I went to church.
Mr. Hayward preached a good sermon on prayer & finished daily

Saturday, March 18, 1933

Hugie has been coolest ever since Thurs. night - I wonder why. I did my work & went downtown with Heinio. Kike was present & got 50 three cent stamps to send as a present to Beau! After lunch I napt & after I had fed Kike Cat & Deborah came to play bridge with Heinio & me - a rainy day & I sent Ellen & Mary over to Richards. We had a very good game. After supper Hugie took me to the college to see the finals of the Intercollegiate boxing. Syracuse won. Hugie was very sweet on the trip but cool again when we got home & it worried me. We read instead of going to

Sunday, March 19, 1933

was awakened by the children having a fight & consequently got up in a bad humor - no hot water or anything. Rushed through my duties in order to get to church - still in a bad humor and on the way home I felt very sick & unhappy.
After dinner Hugie went to walk with Charley & Winnie & I put a picture puzzle together. It was raining & the children were very noisy & I felt like the dickens.
Hennie got supper & Hugie went to church. I finished the doggone puzzle & then read. When we went to bed I had it out with Hugie - felt much more ~~happy~~ - c.

Monday, March 20, 1933

Fel better mentally but not physically. If only it would stop raining. Did my work somehow - when there is sort of fury & not such a joy. He has one tooth new & I guess the rest better him. Took a nap after lunch & slept too long - Henry was so good & quiet. Then I fed Hills & did some mending upstairs. When I brought Hills down I fixed Ellen's
But after supper I felt fine.
& Hugie stayed here while Hennie & I went to Joe's to the bridge club. The hands were good & I enjoyed the evening very much.

Tuesday, March 21, 1933

Did my chores as usual and after lunch I read the Duke story in the Post - the last installment & then I had just time to write to Editha Richmond about the lamps she wanted before Gen & Jane arrived. Henry & Jane played upstairs as it is raining - Gen & I fed Mike & then settled in the davenport with our work - darning for me. We had tea & Mike joined us. I like Gen. After supper Hugie took me to see "King of the Jungle" a lovely, impossible picture which we both fully enjoyed. Buster Crabbe, a swimming champion was the King - he had a Build!

Happy Birthday, Ma!

Wednesday, March 22, 1933

Hugie & I both went to church at 7:30. And again I showered the family with my presence at breakfast. Did my work as usual. It is still raining and I am getting depressed by it. After lunch I took a nap & after feeding Mike got out my mending, but did not get far with it before Hugie came & took the older children & me for a ride. Mike stayed with Heinie. Then we rushed to bed so Mike & Fred was coming to dinner - Heinie, too - & it was very nice. He was very talkative (for him) & we had a very agreeable evening.

Thursday, March 23, 1933

Drove a bit of snow fell during the night! Spring, where are you? Bathed Mike & did the wash according to schedule. After lunch I got busy on my mending - mended a shirt in a pair of Ellen's py jamas before I fed Mike & afterward when Jo & Susan & Peter came to play upstairs with Henry I sewed lace on it. We had tea as usual & Hattie came in time. Ellen brought Katherine & such a noise! I ate a dinner of wheat for supper & thought I was going to be alone - but Hattie's people didn't come for tea & Hugh is got home from club at 8 & Tom came in ^{some played} bridge till 10.

Friday, March 24, 1933

Still trying to snow! Did my work as usual & washed that horrible smelly zipper of Mike's when the he may get cold! Mary Craig dropped in to say I don't have to do over the dress but will I make another one! Praised be! After lunch I wrote to her & then Mike actually cried & I rushed up to feed him - & he was cold. I nipped the hem in Henry's py jamas & lung them then. Hattie came in & helped & it took all afternoon. After supper Hugh & I went to church - Mr. Holmes the guest preacher & Betty sang solo & Uncle F. sat in our pew as we sat behind! Wrote in evening.

Saturday, March 25, 1933

Gorgeous sunny day so Heinie & I planned a trip.
Spent the morning at my clothes and after lunch I napt a bit & then Heinie & I took off for Beech Creek.
It was snowing a little!
At Aunt Mame's we found Mammy & her tiny baby - six pounds & very cute, but I would hate to bring up a baby in such a sloppy household.
When we left the snow was deep & we drove for miles behind a truck carrying 2 dead cows, because I was afraid to pass it.
After supper Hugie worked on his stamps & I brought my mammy baby books up to date.
A nice sociable evening. O.

Sunday, March 26, 1933

Got up quite early so I didn't have to rush quite so much to get to church. Ellen went with us & afterward she & I walked up to Martha's to see some samples. After dinner Hugie went walking but it was too wet under foot for us. So I darned a pile of bath towels by machine.
Heinie made tea over here & K. Shalcross joined us.
She came to fit a dress for Heinie. The walkers came in to have a drink. After supper Hugie & Heinie went to church & when I had the dishes put away I read magazines & stories before.
An evening of leisure for me.

Man here to fix refrigerator

Monday, March 27, 1933

His sunny morning & a big was here. After lunch took a nap, fed Mike & did some mending. Then Martha came & I worked on Ellen's collar.
We had tea, of course, but I did not eat any thing with it so at five thirty Hugie took me, Keenie, Cat & Jo to the movies at the college & I ate sandwiches on the way up. We saw the three Barrymores in "Resurrection & the Empress" a very wonderful picture of the end of the Roman off but very harrowing. I treated them all to ice cream afterward & we needed something to bring back our good spirits.

Tuesday, March 28, 1933

Did a lot of extra washing & had a time feeding Mike his teeth make him fussy.
But managed to push down town to meet Hugie.
After lunch I again took a nap, dog gave me. After I had fed Mike I got hungry on Ellen's flour dough - that Mother D. bought her years ago! - and I baked it up on the machine.

When Hugie came home at supper time he suggested I go with Keenie & Jo to see "Love Me Tonight" again.
So I did! I love that picture Maurice Chevalier. And then I tried to sing "Mimi" until Hugie was ready to brain me!

Wednesday, March 29, 1933

Went to early church - just as I did 2 years ago today when Aunt Louise died. Just before I started Mike Hawthorn planned to say may be they would go to Phila. tomorrow & did I want to go to Lancaster!! & after my work I rushed down town - Ellen too - & bought a spring hat!
Auntie met me there, but had to go to Kew-Forest. After lunch I went to Ma & after feeding Mike I did various odds & ends in case I go tomorrow. We had an early supper & then went to the college Auntie, Heine Jo & I. We saw "Mädchen in Uniform" - very good acting but not an attractive subject. When we got home I found we are going tomorrow.
Called on the

Thursday, March 30, 1933

Great excitement. Henry is going to Lancaster - Ellen to Daddy's office!
John was late so I was able to let Ruth watch the battle while I then Henry & I left with Martha & John.
Henry sat in front with John & was very good, altho rather silent.
We had lunch at the Penn-Harris. Henry behaving like a little man & much impressed by the street cars! At 3:30 we got to Lanc & were greeted by Susie & little Teddy. He & Henry immediately became friends. Why is in Phila. with a man! Susie & I talked. Henry cried when I put him in the tub - tired - but went right off to sleep when he got to bed.
I dined with Dr. & Mrs. A. & Lucy.
Henry & I R. Brook - Susie can ... .. Collett Lane. Highballs.

Friday, March 31, 1933

Henry woke at 7 but I kept him quiet till 8 when we both got up & got dressed. I did a little washing & wrote to Hugie. Then Johnny Corlett left and Kelly & I went out to see Susie. When we got home we took Henry for a street car ride which he loved.
After lunch we took a nap, Henry played, until Kitty Lutz arrived. I was glad to see her. And then Susie came with Teddy & Kitty got Molly & we had quite a children's party. It is raining & nasty out. After dinner (Susie's Philby) Tony Birney dropped in for a visit & then Phil drove Susie, Kelly & I out to Kitty's. Ted was there.
They gave us drinks & we had a

Saturday, April 1, 1933

Henry woke at 6.30 and an hour later I let him dress himself & go down stairs. I let him wash a few things etc & then Kelly, Henry & I went down town to do a little shopping. We came home by street car to please Henry. He & I stop in to see Cousin Beulah.
After lunch everyone naps & I took Henry over to see Aunt Gertie, who was all upset by Henry's Susie & Teddy, Phil & the baby came in when we got back & after while Susie, Kelly & I took a walk to see Tony's cute baby.
Susie's is cuter, but none so cute as Mike. I got a letter from Hugie today, bless his heart. His dore Appel is here - nice we all did a big run for John & I went to see until Monday!

Sunday, April 2, 1933

Henry woke at 5:30. And was very restless so finally I let him get up & he was very good downstairs until the rest of us appeared at 9:30. Kelly & I went to St. James and I enjoyed being in the old church again, altho felt sad that all the Reynolds are gone from it. After dinner Tony & her 2 little girls came in. Fats tell & I took Henry & Teddy to the Hopkins. Margaret's little boy, Jim, was there. I also learned that Aunt Mary had "had to get married"! no wonder we used to worry about me! After supper tell & I went out to Susie's. First we put a puzzle together, then Phil came & gave us drinks & we got to talking about Bessie & the old days. Then

Monday, April 3, 1933

Henry did not wake so early & I got up a little earlier in order to get my packing done before Tony & little Tony came to take Kelly, Henry & me out to Roules to see Betty's baby. We lathered, but then we stayed there until we had just time to go to Susie's & say good-bye before lunch. After lunch I got some oysters to take to Hugie & at 2:30 John & Martha came for us. Henry & I sat in back & Henry was more talkative than on Thurs. We got home at 5:45. Hugie washed out of the house & says, I was glad to see him. A great home-coming. I bathed Henry & tucked them all in bed. Hugie had to go out after supper - I paid bills. Ellen had & cried when I went to bed & spilled an otherwise perfect day!

Tuesday, April 4, 1933

Ellen & Henry got into a fight & later Henry struck me when I didn't want him to do something. He got a spanking. He is filled with self-assurance because he has ridden on a street car! Martha kissed with great pleasure & did my washing with Leo. Hugie dropt in during the morning - time as he didn't come home to lunch.
After lunch I took a nap while Henry played in doors - mostly out.
After I had fed Wilie I cut the back out of one of Aunt Louisa's dresses so I can wear it to the dance on Sat. The big zeppelin, Albatross, was struck by lightning at sea & 75 people lost! After supper Hugie took me to a concert at the Catholic church. Wrote Hugie

Wednesday, April 5, 1933

A lovely spring day so I did a little extra washing and almost didn't get down town. After lunch I wrote to Ma and then Martha appeared before I fed Wilie so she had the pleasure of sitting in the bathroom with us then I got to work cutting out a pattern from the rumpers I borrowed from Sannie and cutting out the rumpers I'm to make for Martha's rumpers. It took me all afternoon noon, what with tea & all.
After supper I wrote her it while Hugie read various items of interest in the news paper to me. He's a dear and I love him more & more!

Thursday, April 6, 1933 got inspired to call Grace & come this afternoon but she was going to Williamsport if it cleared - it rained harder & harder all day & she didn't come - so I thru - the narrow-rimmed bang A.M. as usual and after lunch I started to sew up the rompers.

Henry played very nicely by himself but when Ellen came home & brought Richard & Katherine the noise began! However, I went on sewing up rompers. After supper Hugo took me to see "I Had a Million" - a different kind of movie which we enjoyed. Got home early so we read for a while. Today I suddenly decided to stop fabric battles & he took to it kindly.

Friday, April 7, 1933

A nice day so I went down town after my work was done & mailed Susie's rompers to her. After lunch I left Ruth in charge of the kids and left Henry with Jane while I went to Ma's bleach attic to find fabric to fit C. Valentine's paintings.
Then I too, went to Genie's & made button holes in the rompers. Martha was there & we had a most agreeable afternoon. Ellen came then after school. After supper Hugo & I went to church - Mr. Sherwood preached - a nervous little man and when we came home I finished the rompers & Hugo brought some of the same home - Fun!

Saturday, April 8, 1933

Nike has been stubborn about drinking his milk from a glass the last few feedings. I met Hugie at noon & we looked at baby pens but they are so expensive. After lunch I got very energetic and framed the pictures in the frames I got yesterday & was delighted with results. Then I fed Nike with a struggle & lost all ambition. I fixed a braziere to wear to night & Hugie came home to tea only, it was beer. I put the children to bed - Nike actually drank the milk! Then Hugie, Heinie, Phil & I went to Joe's to a delicious buffet supper & thence to the club to the Jack Hascenites dance. It was sort of boring - much beer - but I drank a in.

Sunday, April 9, 1933

Felt very hum so Hugie, like the angel he is got the children dressed & gave Nike his bath (the only one he gets during the day now) At 8:30 I got up & got breakfast & bathed Nike & we all went to church but due to a lot of little things couldn't all sit together! After dinner I fed Nike & then Hugie took us all for a lovely ride on the new road from Pasture Hills to Port Matilda. It was a gorgeous afternoon and I felt very happy. Heinie got supper, Hugie went to church & I wrote to Ma. Heinie in a bad humor & I was in when she was home. Rest

Slept till Hughie went to work & then got Ruth to help with my washing. After lunch I took a nap after sending Henry out to play in the glorious sunshine. After I had fed Mike Martha arrived & we sat on the front porch. I tried to do some darning but had so many calls - Janet - Tom & Sterling all - and had tea. I put Mike in his pen on the porch & he was good as gold. After supper Hughie & I suddenly decided to go to the college to see Helen Hayes & Clark Gable in "The White Sister".
Very beautiful, but very sad.
Dined on the way home, too when H. said the heroine reminded him of me & how he couldn't do without me.

Wrote birthday letter to Dad - 1/2 pg. - sent him 2 ties.
Tuesday, April 11, 1933

Again I slept till Hughie was ready to go and again Ruth helped me. I forgot to say that yesterday I went to the noon service at church - Mr. Boyer preached. & today I went & Mr. spoke much better.

Hughie came home to lunch after ward & then I took a nap with him playing beside me as it is raining again. After I had fed Mike I did a lot of mending upstairs & later came down to finish darning stockings. Then I had a bit to Henry & Ellen while Mike played on the floor very busily.
After supper Hughie went out & I stretched on the daybed very comfortable & read stories.

Wednesday, April 12, 1933 went to church at 7:30. After breakfast I went over to see Helen Blain & then had an argument with Ruth about having Easter off - she may leave but I doubt it. Finally I bathed Tulke & got my work done & went down town to buy shoes that came home & wrote for some.

Just Huguie down town & we again attended the noon service - Mr.
Arnold preaching - dully. After lunch Betty & Stuart arrived.
I fed Tulke & then fixed my gray coat. Made tea & Betty had to go, but Winifred came just then & was very entertaining until nearly six! Fortunately Huguie went to the club so I was in no hurry for my ~~shoes~~ ^{shoes} ~~at a single~~ ^{at a single}

Thursday, April 13, 1933

Again I went to church at 7:30 and was able to get some washing done before ten when I bathed Tulke. Went down town before lunch. Afterward I took a nap then fed Tulke.
Martha came later when I was working on an old gray silk dress, trying to make it modish for Easter. But I didn't seem to get much done what with tea & Tulke & the children. Martha had to leave soon after four but then I lost my ambition. After supper Huguie & I went to church and after that we got out the bunnies from the cellar & let them run around the kitchen. We will like them if the children don't.

Friday, April 14, 1933

While I was making the bed Blaine dropped in to see me! And while I was bathing Nuko Cousin Nan Hay arrived! This must be calling day - and I, in a hurry to get to church at noon - which I did, for the three hour service. I didn't like it so much this year as he made lessons for us from the 7 words instead of just a sort of watching by the cross as usual. At three I went downtown to do my Easter shopping. When I got home I found Peggy & her little Julia here. After supper we put the rabbit in the kitchen again, but this time I tore myself away from them to work on my dress. O.

Saturday, April 15, 1933

No church today - Did my work & had time for a treat! needed pedicure before church. After church I sent the children - then Phil came with a bird house which I bought & he hung in the pear tree. He sat in kitchen while I pressed my dress. Then I fed Nuko - Heino came over and I worked hard to finish my dress - it looks nice, too. The children were down at Jennie's. Hugie brought me a bunch of sweet peas. Dear! After dinner Hugie fixed one of the baby peas for the rabbits and Heino & I made puffed rice candy eggs & dried Easter eggs, hid them & the baskets. Lires

Sunday, April 16, 1933

Hugie & I went to church at 6 A.M.
A very beautiful service. Home at 7:30.
To find Ellen had obeyed my instructions & got up at 7:15 & gave the baby his bottle. She & Henry were all dressed & waiting upstairs. They came down then & such excitement! Henry found the most eggs. I had honey napkin rings in their baskets. Then Hugie gave them the real bunnies!! I gave Henry a hammering toy & Ellen garden tools. We gave Hugie 2 ties & 2 Sox. He gave me a shawl $5! I bathed Niles etc. & Phil came to see the bunnies & get a drink. After dinner I took a nap, fed Niles & Nuala F. came. Hugie & Heinie roosting in her 3rd floor. It is raining. Told Nuala F. about Grace & me. Supper at Heinie's with John. Bridge & tea.

New black pumps with high heels!
Monday, April 17, 1933

Thought I just couldn't get awake. Raining again. Did my work as usual. After lunch Hugie & the children started to build a rabbit pen outdoors. I took a nap after lying watching those crazy little bunnies. Fed Niles & put him on the porch in the rice sun which suddenly appeared. I cut out a dress & skirt for the children's shop, but Niles was very funny & I sort of ambitiousless. Hugie built a wonderful pen. After supper he made a house to go in the pen and I tried to read a murder story in the Post but the bunnies had most of my attention. I shall miss them when they go out doors.

Tuesday, April 18, 1933

Nikeo cried in the night for the very first time since Betty Martin left last year!! He had a fever I gave him a drink & he went to sleep again. Oh, dear! He was better in the morning. Hugie & the children went out early to complete the pen & put the humming in it. It is a lovely day. I took the children downtown with me before lunch - battles & coattails & we were all hot. After lunch I read the Post & then got Nikeo up but he wouldn't eat. I thought it is only his tooth. He sat beside me on theavenport while I sewed & Henry built stations. Ellen at school again after supper I ordered flower seeds. Then I sat & snatched beside Hugie.

Wednesday, April 19, 1933

Nikeo fussy again during the night and he seems worse this morning, so I did not bathe him. Went down town later & stop to see the doctor, but he wasn't there so Hugie got me some pills after lunch. Ellen is feeling better too, so she didn't go to school & I gave her some pills. Henry & I are playing doctor. Nikeo stayed in bed all day - just got him up every hour for a pill - he is pathetic. I managed somehow, between pills, to cut out Mary Craig's dress. After dinner Hugie & I read - then he worked on his stamps & I snatched - a nice domestic thing. And I gave Nikeo pills.

Thursday, April 20, 1933

Hike is cool + smiles a little this morning. Ellen seems pretty well, too. I didn't bathe Hike, but did a large wash. After lunch Ellen went to school, only to return soon in tears + slept on theavenport till I finally put her to bed. I tried to cut down a picture frame, most unsuccessfully. Once all three climbed up at the top of their lamp. Ellen, because I was putting her to bed, Hike because I wasn't holding him + Hany because he fell downstairs!! And Ma. Flackey + Betty + Jo came in!!! But they didn't stay long. After supper Phil called up, wanted us to go down there. But I won't leave Ellen. Hany is finally went for a walk - It

Friday, April 21, 1933

It is a beautiful day and Ellen seemed all right so we decided to take her to Dr. Re-walt in Williamsport - a thing I've been wanting to do for months as she hasn't seemed really well. Luc, Hany, Ellen + Hany + I left at 11:30 + ate a picnic lunch near Wood-ridge, it was lots of fun altho Ellen was sort of quiet. We saw the doctor - very nice - he said her temperature was 104! He couldn't account for it. He was most interested in her constipation. As soon as we got home I put Ellen to bed. After supper we got Hany + Jo to play bridge + we each wrote a joint letter to Pete when darning.

Saturday, April 22, 1933

Ellen restless during the night and very hot. So we got Dr.
Hoffman to come + see her later.
Dressed her over to my bed + bathed twice etc. as usual.
Dr. H. was surprisingly nice + gave us many pills. After lunch Helen took my place going with Hugie to a State Trade meet - also! while I stayed at home with poor little Ellen. She was content just to lie still so I did a big washing which I didn't get done this A.M. Henry played cent doors very nicely but Helen was awfully fussy. After supper I fell asleep beside Hugie in theavenport - but for up most of the night - all the children were fussy!

Put Ellen in my bed after my breakfast and attended to her. Just before dinner Hugie drove me to Nilesburg to find Mother's Rents. I feel swamped with work ahead of me. After dinner I attended to Ellen's needs - the doctor came + finally I fed Niles. Later Helen came in from her garden + let me go out in mine. I had a fine time but stayed too long + got too tired. Consequently I could hardly eat any supper + went to bed immediately afterward.
I feel as if I were getting something! Wouldn't that be

Monday, April 24, 1933

After sleeping 12 hours with a few interruptions I woke up to find Jim getting only a cold. Ellen about the same. Did my work as usual. Mike seems normal again - he lost a pound! After lunch Ruth went down to work at Ma's, getting the house ready for their arrival. I devoted myself to Ellen & Mike. Dr. Hoffman came & says Ellen has pyelitis - tube infection between kidney & bladder. Her temperature today is 103 $\frac{3}{16}$. She just lies in bed quietly. I went down to Ma's sat fine to see what the girls had done. After supper Hugie took me to see "Calvescane" Diana Lynn and Elsie Brook - wonderful picture of a family during war.

Tuesday, April 25, 1933

Gave Ellen castor oil when I went to bed last night and Baypol says, what a night! Poor Ellen said "oh Mummy I hate this night." But she really seemed better in the morning. Betty Grot brought her some paper dolls & she put in my bed & cut them out. I did my chores much as usual. Henry & I lunched together. He is a good little fellow these days. I tried some summer suits on him & found some that will fit. Richard brought Ellen some puzzles & a little plant, wox! I went down to Ma's when Henry came. After dinner Hugie who is a bit grouchy now to me while I touched the Craigies.

Wednesday, April 26, 1933

Quite a good night was had' by all, except my poor sore throat which troubles & kept me awake a bit. We are getting down to a nice morning routine - Ellen is no trouble, a good little girl. I washed a wool dress of mine & a bedspread besides my other work. After lunch Ellen & I napt while Henry played noisily on the 3rd floor as it is cold & windy. Ellen sat in a chair in the sun by the window. She seems much better - I'll be glad when Dr. H. comes back & corroborates my idea! He's in Phila. I went to Ma's again later. House all ready but Henry not coming till Saturday. He went out - wrote Ma. ^{Heinie & I} ^{sewed} Hugie & Heine have colds too.

Such a family! Only Henry is Thursday, April 27, 1933 fine!

I feel better but Ellen seems to feel better so that's fine. I put her in my bed where she knitted on a spool happily while I did my work. And she didn't mind when I went down town. After lunch she & I took a nap and Henry played out door with Jane. She sat in the chair again later & Heine played in front of the mirror and I napped. Toward bedtime she got kind of tired & hot and was glad to get into her own bed. Hugie & Heine went to a church card party after supper and I read and went to bed early.

Hugie stayed with Ellen when I went out with Martha - Friday, April 28, 1933

Ellen's temperature was 104 at bedtime.

Ellen makes only one, at four, for a drink and seems cool & comfortable in the morning. If only this old fever would leave. The doctor came back today and seemed pleased with her.
She can get up tomorrow if the fever goes away. After lunch we napt - Henry was at Jane's and Martha woke up on her arrival. We had hicks & then out with Ellen & sewed & had tea - Ellen had orange juice & it was quite a party. I walked home with Martha, tried on a dress she will give me & then we went to see Olive - Gimmie has also been sick. I was Kate getting back.
Ellen felt a little better. Read Ellen's temperature varied from 97 to Saturday, April 29, 1933 105 $\frac{3}{5}$

Gave Ellen a dose of oil at 7. She doesn't seem so well today.
Pushed about my work with my mind buzzing with many things. Got the doctor to see Ellen again. He gave us a thermometer. I left her with Hugie after lunch & Henry & I went down to Ma's. Shung certainly like mad but didn't have them all up before Ma & Dad arrived! They look fine.
Hugie phoned that Ellen's temperature was 105 $\frac{3}{5}$! So Ma & I rushed home & I sponged her & put an ice cap on her. The doctor came again - typhoid?
If only he would decide - oh, for Dr. Dale! Later Hugie & I went down to see Ma & Dad. Ellen asleep Temp - 98 - 104

Sunday, April 30, 1933

Left Ellen in her own bed today but she seems better. Temperature a little below normal! Kept her so she could see the rabbits. Hermanis around & then sat with Ellen until Dad & Ma came to dinner. Then the doctor came to take some of her blood & he tested for typhoid fever. Oh, please God, don't let it be so. But we must have a nurse anyway & Betty is coming tomorrow. I shall be glad. Ellen's fever way up again so I bathed her. Dad & Ma stayed all afternoon, mostly downstairs so I did not see them much. Moved Ellen over to Hermanis. We had supper over there. Alone later I tried to read but couldn't get my mind off Ellen. Slept with her.

Temperature - 105 $\frac{3}{4}$ at 2 A.M. - down to 98 and up again to 105 $\frac{1}{2}$ at 6 P.M.

Monday, May 1, 1933

Had to give Ellen a sponge bath at two A.M. Hugie slept the ice for me. Did not sleep very well over there. Poor little Ellen - I hope it's not typhoid. Hugie & Henry went for Betty & I certainly was glad to see her at 11. I gave Ellen another spongeing before she got here. And after lunch Betty went to see the doctor, who says it is typhoid. I felt like crying, but, oh, I'm glad Betty is here. Spent most of the afternoon getting things for Betty & cutting out paper dolls for Ellen. Dad came up for a little while. After supper Hugie went to a rotary meeting & Betty went to bed & I tried to figure it all

Temp - 97 to 105 $\frac{2}{5}$

Tuesday, May 2, 1933

Ellen slept pretty well - I slept very well, knowing she is in good hands. Betsy & I had breakfast together & then each got to our respective bathing & washing. Hugie came home to lunch - he is still feeling grippy & sick. I sat with Ellen afternoon until time to get Nikes up. And then because the weather was so propitious I transplanted a few flowers - Henry helped me but I had to call Mr. Rokey over the fence to do the hard work. And then it rained! After supper I wrote millions of checks & then Hugie & I went to call on Dr. Dale to tell him how we've missed him. Also Ma & Dec.

Temperature - 101 to 105 $\frac{2}{5}$

Wednesday, May 3, 1933

Betsy & Heinie sponged Ellen during the night - I slept thru it & felt a little jealous in the morning - but that is silly. She seems happy today. Betsy & I attended to our respective babies. Henry is wonderful - playing by himself all the time. After lunch I cut out paper dolls for Ellen, fed Nikes & went back to Ellen until Henry got lonely and I darned some stockings while listening to his chatter. Ma came in & I went back to Ellen while she stayed with Betsy & the boys. After supper Hugie and I read until Heinie got Hugie to take a walk with her - then Nikes got a long long spell.

Temp. 101 to 103 $\frac{3}{5}$

Thursday, May 4, 1933

The little patient seems very well today - she is a good little girl. I brought clothes from the 3rd floor to see - did my regular chores & took Henry down town with me to meet Hugie. After lunch Ruth & I went to the 3rd floor to clean the closet up there - it is an awful job. Interrupted it to feed Mike. Hugie & Henry cut the grass - and played. When we were finally thru I left Mike with Ma & Heinie & went over to see Ellen - more paper dolls! After supper Hugie took me to the college to see Maurice Chevalier & Baby Leroy in "Best Man Story". We liked it - especially the baby.

Temp. 100 $\frac{3}{5}$ to 104 $\frac{1}{5}$

Friday, May 5, 1933

I stayed in bed till Hugie went to work & everyone had had her bath! We all have to use this tub. Bathed Mike & struggled there a little wrestling & then sat with Ellen while Henry looked in the porch window. After lunch Henry went out to play & I took a nap till time to feed Mike. Went over to cut out a few more paper dolls & then came down to sit with the boys & Ma & to darn a few stockings. Hugie & Henry cut the grass again later. Cat Loue was operated on for appendicitis. After supper I wrote in diary & left Betty sponge Ellen.

Temp - 99 to 103

Saturday, May 6, 1933

Slept late again, but got thru my work in time to go over to see Ellen - she really seems to be getting better, although not hoping too much. After lunch I napped, fed Mike & cut out paper dolls for Ellen. Then Henry & I went in the car for Ma & all went to see a puppet show at the Presbyterian church. My main pleasure in it was in watching Henry's face - he thought it was wonderful. After supper Heini & Betty went to see it and when they came home Hugo & I went to play bridge with Dr. & Mrs. Dale!! I played with the Dr. & altho he & I got beaten I enjoyed it very much. See man.

Temp - 98 to 103

Sunday, May 7, 1933

Ellen's temperature did not go above 103 last night so she did not need a sponge bath for the first time. Hey, it seems weeks since last Sunday! I rushed around & went to church, Hugo, Ma, Henry & I. Fixed the altar & then washed same to do the washing. After dinner the doctor came & was pleased with Ellen. I fed Mike & then sat with Ellen. Ma came & Betty & Heini went out. Ma sat with Ellen & I took Mike down stairs. Henry was out doors - good as well. Dad came in later. After supper Hugo & Heini went to church & Betty & I had a nice talk. Wrote in diary to Betty & C.

97² - 101

Monday, May 8, 1933

Ellen again had a very good night and we are beginning to feel very much encouraged. I did my work as usual. After lunch I read to Ellen until time to feed Mike & then read again until time to get him up to stay. After that I went downstairs to be with the boys - then ought to be tired of me! I nipped & restitched some old suits of Bills for Henry - Heinie came in & helped. It is raining & Ma did not come. At supper (Betty with Heinie) Hugie & I had a fight over how to treat Henry. Later Pete & Jo came in to play bridge & drink beer. ^{Pete had} no job again.

96 - 101

Tuesday, May 9, 1933

Ellen continues to hold her own. I rushed in to see her several times during a busy morning and then Henry & I went down town & met Ma & did a lot of shopping, stopping at Woodrings for some gladiolas for Martha to take to Cat in the hospital in Philipsburg. And after lunch I went with Deborah to the college to see Joan Crawford & Gay Cooper in "Today we Live" which we enjoyed very much. Robt Young & Frankot Tove were also very good in it. We had tea afterwards. A nice little spree. Set with Ellen when I got back. Martha brought her books. After supper Hugie went out - I went to bed. Prot - Pussy came in - O.

Wednesday, May 10, 1933

Went to church at 7:30 A.M.
 Ellen feeling fine, only now she demands more entertainment.
 Went over when my work was done and after lunch I went over again and cut out paper dolls until time to feed Mike. Stayed with Ellen until three-thirty when I brought Mike downstairs and soon Martha came and Mother came & we all had tea - & burnt cheese crackers. Henry was playing out doors - the sun actually came out. Dr. Hoffman came to see Ellen, too. He is pleased.
 After supper Betty & Heinie went to the moonies and they read the papers to me while I worked on the Craig dress.

Rain again - it is getting depressing. But Ellen is getting better so all is really fine. Betty & I breakfasted together and went about our various chores. After lunch I went over to see Ellen but she was in a bad humor so let Henry see her for a little while & he was so cute making conversation. Ted Mike & later came downstairs & he with the boys - Ma came in & then Betty got, whom I offered a piece of cake & then I forgot to give it to her! I was busy with the Craig dress!
 After supper, late because Ruth had "off": Betty stayed here while Henry & I called on Mrs. Ed.

Actually not raining so I rushed through my work & went out to dig in the garden & plant my seeds.
I had a lovely time & got them all in and after lunch it began to softly rain again!
I went over to talk to Ellen a little while - her temperature continues to stay a little below normal so we are hoping she will soon be up - she wants to get up so badly.
After I fed Mike I took him downstairs in his pen & he was good for a while with Henry playing there - later I joined them. He has an upper tooth at last. After supper Betty & Kevin went to Beulah Creek & I went to the nurses graduation & I ^{seemed} read.

Still raining but my seeds are in now so I don't care! Ellen is fine and Henry went over to play with Richard - much excited after playing alone for 2 weeks. I went down town before lunch. After lunch I read to Ellen & Henry then he went over to Richard's & I fed Mike & took him downstairs.
I went out in the garden & planted my little box trees before it rained again. Betty went out & Ma came & she & I sat in Ellen's room & sewed.
Mike was a little angel all afternoon all alone! After supper I did a little stitching on the machine, wrote in my diary, etc, talked to Betty & read.

Another rainy day. Went to early church - Ma was there and then got breakfast for Henry & myself. Stopped in to see Ellen a couple of times.
She is eating now & enjoying it. Got all my chores done & then Hugie & the boys & I went to Ma's to a very nice dinner. Put Mike in a pen on Beau's bed - he didn't like it. But he was jolly & good after tea when I brought him down & fed him. Reading so Ma read to Henry & I fell asleep.
They drove home with us & came up to see Ellen. Heine got supper & went to church with Hugie.
Lois Hayes came. Mrs. Hay & phoned that Paul was in an accident.

A beautiful sunny day! What I could do by way of washing blankets if only Ruth were here! Instead I rushed to get all the necessary things done. Betty helped me, & we had a good lunch.
I rested a few minutes afterward before feeding Mike. Put him downstairs & went over to Ellen - tried to "catch" Mike & put him on the potty - no luck. Ma came & mended for me.
Hugie & Harry cut the grass & had a lovely time. Hulled strawberries for the shortcake Heine made for supper. She & Betty went to movies. I put out compost for Martha & returned shoes to Pat's & read.

Rain again, but Ruth is back. Henry went over to Richards and after my duties were done I went down town on an afternoon shopping trip. After lunch I sat with Ellen, making cuffs for her dress. Pat. tries in his pen and tried to "catch" him again in rain. But mostly I sat with Ellen & Henry was there sometimes, too and their conversation did intrigue me. Olive Cliffe sent Ellen a doll with a lot of clothes which she adores. Everyone is so kind, and I never do anything for anybody. After supper I finally was able to read the Post. And then I worked on

The Sun! I got very energetic was doing winter things of the children, besides my regular chores. After lunch I picked some berries of the valley for Ellen & sat with her until time to get Mike up & fed. Put him in the sun on the front porch, and put away the things that have been airing, in the 3rd floor. Quite a feeling of accomplishment. The cable & we sat with Ellen & sewed. Our little girl, she wants to get up so badly - but she is very good. Richard brought her a book. After supper Hingle went to a meeting & I wrote to Mrs. Giff and sewed up the rompers.

Thursday, May 18, 1933

Ellen seems to be perfectly well now - her old happy self, but of course, very weak. I did my chores as usual and after lunch I stitched a bit on the machine, talked to Ellen, fed Mike and got him ready to go with me to Betty Gato's. She had a few girls & tea - Dottie Schaefer especially. It was very nice and Mike behaved beautifully. After supper Hugie and I went up to the Slaffin to play bridge with Jo & Pete. We had our usual congenial time and Jo & I drank beer because there was nothing else. Pete doesn't seem discouraged at having glorious day, so I got over ambitious & got Ruth to help me wash two big blankets. By 11:30 when Gen came for me I was pretty tired. But I soon got over it. We took Jane & Henry with us and stopped at a hunting camp beyond Port Matilde to eat the nice picnic lunch Gen had brought. Then we went on to Philip's to see Cat - she looked splendid, & of course told us all about her operation. After supper Betty went out with Henrie and Hugie and I was left to take care of our little family.

Saturday, May 20, 1933

I neglected my diary at this time and have never been able to remember what happened except that I finished Martha's rompers during the afternoon and pressed them. This habit of keeping a diary is hard when times are busy and I often forget it for days at a time but I wouldn't give it up for anything. I'm looking forward to an old age with nothing to do but sit still & read of these days when I worked about so much at top speed. Wonder if I will.

96³-98²

Sunday, May 21, 1933

Went to early church - Ma was there. Got all my work done easily with time to visit Ellen before going down to Ma's to dinner. Hugie went golfing and I took Ma, Betty, Niles & Henry for a ride - we wandered around not knowing exactly where we were but fully enjoying the country side - stopping to pick flowers for Ellen, etc. After supper Heine went off with Charles & they went to church & Betty & I looked at the papers, talked & I mended a little more on the collar for Ellen's flower dress. I must finish that dress.

Two started home years ago.

Monday, May 22, 1933

Ellen does seem so fine these days - she sits up a little now, on Betsey's bed. I washed six dresses & one flannel skirt, among my other clothes this morning. After lunch I ironed some of them and Jo Sheffer dropped in for a little while. Later while I was sitting with Ellen Peggy Warner came, bringing Ellen a nice game, and Betty Grot came with flowers, but I felt sort of dull & peopless. Ma was here, too. After supper everyone went out. Betsey & Helen's movies - Hug is broke on the many beer bonds. I also fully finished Ellen's dress.

Ellen got a lovely paper ball of gift from ~~Ellen~~ Appel.

97² - 99

When I got up I suddenly got a bad pain in my tummy - it got worse & after breakfast Betty phoned for Dr. Hoffman. She was afraid of appendicitis. But by ten it stopped. I know it was anxious date last night. And by afternoon I felt fine again so Ruth and I cleaned the play room. It sounds simple but is no joke. By five I had every thing up there mended or thrown away and all glistening. After supper Hugie & I took Jack, Jean & Nancy Carter to a choir meeting in Lock Haven & while they sang we called on Jim Home. Pleasant but not exciting.

972-991

went to early church - only 4 people there - sort of silly, I think. But I got a nice early start on my work & was able to go down town & buy crib sheets & pyjamas. ^{Always} something to be made. After lunch nothing could stop me until I had finished reading the "album" murder story in the Post. That done I visited Ellen a bit, cutting out paper dolls. Ma didn't come because of a storm - so many storms these days. Later I wrote to Tony Birney whose mother died & to Tully Appel. After supper I was going to Ma's but Sam came & then Pete & so we four played hide & seek - ^{discovered} - ^{album}.

974-983

Thursday, May 25, 1933

As usual on day so I went to early church again. After my work I put my feet & feathers in the sun to air - such a lot of trouble to take care of! And after lunch I put it all away under the supervision of Henry & Jane! Ellen was on our back porch & I put Mike out there - Ma came & scolded me for not cleaning house - What does she think I am? Now when I didn't seem to be getting much done she came back later to have supper with Betty & me over at Heine's - very nice. Later I cut out pyjamas for Ellen.

Friday, May 26, 1933

Did quite a bit of washing myself after getting kids to bed & then helped Betsy wash Ellen's big blankets. And I was tired after lunch so I rested till feeding time. Went over to visit with Ellen for a while - kids on back porch - & then went to see Ellen's teacher Miss Ciden but couldn't find her. was caught in another nice thunder storm. Later I put kids in his jumper & started to sew up Ellen's pyjamas. Henry at Jane's. After supper I continued working on the pyjamas while Hagie made gin. When Betsy came in Hagie took me for a little ride & we got into

Saturday, May 27, 1933

When Ruth helped me make beds I told her I won't be able to pay her extra for house cleaning - she took it nicely. Did my work as usual & Henry & I went down town. After lunch I sat with Ellen. Betsy & Henry went to a sale. After I had fed kids Martha & Ma came. Later sat with Ellen while Martha & I stayed downstairs with kids. It is raining again. Dad suddenly appears! Nice to see him. After supper on the porch with Henry & Betsy, Hagie came home from the club & Peter & Jo came to play bridge, but Ma & Ted came first! We played & drank after he left.

Sunday, May 28, 1933

Went to early lunch, but Ma wasn't there. Then got Henry & my breakfasts and began my labors that was bad today as Ruth came to cook dinner - Heino was here, too. The doctor came soon after - he does not like the slight temperature Ellen has been running. I thought she'd be all well, by now. Took Henry & Hilse down to see Grandad & later Ma took a little walk with us. We got home just before a storm. At supper we discussed Betty's leaving tomorrow and decided against it - much dry relief. Wrote in my diary nearly all night.

97-99²

Monday, May 29, 1933

Sunshine, so I aired baby blankets & washed some only to have to bring them all in when the sun soon disappeared! After lunch I picked some flowers and then went to the 3rd floor to help Ruth clean. It took us all afternoon to finish - the horrible bookcase, too. Ma was here & took Hilse when another awful storm came. It is getting terrible - so many storms. After supper Hugie took me to the college to see John Barrymore & Diana Wynyard in "Reunion in Vienna" - a very clever picture I thought!

Memorial Day—

97-99² Tuesday, May 30, 1933

Heinie took Henry to see his Daddy parade. My morning was much as usual except that I washed the guest room bed spreads & got Bugie help wring them. After lunch Betty & Heinie went to the movies at the college and I took a nap with Ellen—Henry over at Richard's. Then I fed Huber & put him on the back porch & went back to Ellen to cut out more paper dolls. I took her temperature & was discouraged & fixed it up again. She seems so well. After supper Bugie brought Dad & Ma up.
They played cribbage & I cut out a suit for H. and all in all it was a good day.

Went to early church - my last until Nov. most likely! Did my work as usual and went down town. After lunch I picked flowers, wrote in diary etc and then fed Huber and put him out in his pen while I went over to stay with Ellen as Betty went out. Ma came and helped me with my mending for a while. I had to bring Huber in as it got windy & cold. Later I hemmed some crib sheets. After supper Bugie and I went up to Martha's to play some bridge with her and John. We had hard liquor & the men here! We had a good time.

Thursday, June 1, 1933

Such a bright cool day that I decided to do more house-cleaning and as soon as I got thru my chores I started on bureau drawers. After lunch Ruth and I began in earnest in our bedroom. Betty very kindly took care of Mike for me. Ma poked her head in but the drone of the vacuum cleaner kept on & on until finally the room was spick & span & Ruth & I were very tired. Hugué gave me some gin & span me over to put the children to bed. Betty & I were left alone after supper & I fell asleep - too tired to go upstairs to bed! Silly.

Friday, June 2, 1933

Dressed the spring covers before Mike's bath - it is such a glorious day to do them but after that I was willing to do as little work as possible. Took a nap after lunch as well as I could with what seemed like millions of people walking thru the house. Had Mike & then he & I joined Ellen on the back porch. Betty has been working like a madman all day killing germs! We came out on the porch too. After supper I treated myself to the luxury of reading - the piled-up back numbers of magazines!

Saturday, June 3, 1933

Slept late. The doctor came while I had Wilco on his foot on the back porch with Ellen! He thinks Ellen is fine & Betty is going today - too too. Her next case - a baby - sent for her, but she was going today anyway. And after lunch she & her bundles got off. Hugie drove her to Jersey Shore & Heinie & Henry went with her. I was left with my oldest & youngest on the back porch in the hot sun. Martha came in for a little while. Hugie came home only to rush off again with Heinie to Swisstown clinic! I felt a bit blue at first, but ate my shredded wheat on the porch & then wrote many letters & a letter to Aunt Maud.

Sunday, June 4, 1933

Got Wilco & Henry up & started & then rushed over to give Ellen her medicine & orange juice. And I kept rushing at a terrific rate of speed all morning giving Ellen a bath & eczema & Wilco a bath & doing the wash. Ma & Dad came to lunch which was very nice. Hugie went to golf & the rest of us joined Ellen on the upper porch. Dad finally left but Ma stayed half the day for the little ones. I got them all to bed finally & Heinie got some supper for us and stayed with the children while Hugie took me for a ride to the country club - lovely moonlight.

Monday, June 5, 1933

Again began mending at 7 but things fit in pretty well and at noon I was tired but had done everything.
Dressed with Ellen in her room till time to feed kids.
Ma came & we spent the rest of the afternoon on the porch with Ellen. She seems so well - if only she didn't run this little temperature.
I am tired tho and wish I could go to bed instead of going out tonight. But Hugie gave me a drink & after I had them all in bed & my dinner I felt fine and went to Betty Gast's bridge in honor of Mrs. Neal McCloud. I really enjoyed it very much - 2 tables.

It is quite warm and after Ellen's bath & supper I put her in the sun without a top on. Then got to work on Tulac. After lunch - just Hugie & me - I took a nap with Ellen. Ma came & laughed at our undisturbed colony - Tulac & Hugie in sun suits - Ellen in pants & Hugie cutting the grass without a clint on. I tried to knit but there are so many constant interruptions that I lose interest. After supper Hugie went to bring Dad & Ma but they didn't come. I sewed up Hugie's suit & then called up Hugie to come home & eat my we sat thru the animal pictures

Heinie gets Ellen up first thing & she didn't have to have an enema so my work gets lighter - I am feeling much better, too, than I did the beginning of the week. After lunch Ellen & I rested, I fed turtles & then Richard & Henry came indoors as a storm blew up.
I put them all together in the study & they played nicely while I did some mending. And Ellen's temperature went down to normal!
Ruth fed turtles etc while Huguie & I went to a supper at the club. then I fixed Ellen for the night - went to see Cat for a while - came for me to see Clyde in "Gilligan's Island" - wonderful had time to go down town. nearly passed out with the heat however. While Ellen took her rest I went down in the cool cellar & cleaned the jelly closet. Fed turtles & put them in the front porch in the pen in no time but a deep and I stayed up with Ellen until Ma came to be with her while I went down on the porch to Heinie's tea party - Jo Martha, Betty & Mrs. McCloud.

Nice, but terribly hot. After supper Huguie took me for a very nice ride to cool off & then we played bridge at 8:30 & 9:00

Friday, June 9, 1933

Did not give Ellen a bath so had time to wash Mike's blanket & three sweaters. After lunch I lay on the porch bench while Ellen rested on the davenport.
Hugie carried her down before lunch. Ted Mike & did a few chores until Hugie brought her & stay with Ellen while I went first to see Dad & then to another tea party for Mr. Wellens.
This time it was at Cousin Adie's and very enjoyable.
I fed the children when I got home & then Hugie & I ate - only we quarrelled - about how to raise children as usual. I gave Ellen & Henry a bath later & Hugie took her & me to Heine ville. Later he took Betty & Heine & I went home. Heine made my desk while Ellen rested on the davenport. Ted Mike & took him & my sewing out on the front porch with Ellen. The doctor came & after he left Martha came & she & Heine & I had ice tea.

Martha is all excited because Nuke made a terrific mess in his pen - such a pleasant treat on such a hot day! But I managed to get all my chores done & then took a bath & we all set off for Ma's - Ellen in her new dress very pretty & Henry in his suit I finished yesterday. After dinner Hugie went to golf & Ma & I worked at keeping Ellen quiet and Dad set & complained of his ill health. Poor Dad - but it's awfully hard on Ma to hear it all the time. & now the children home at 5:30. gave them their supper & finally Hugie came home for his - he did not go to church so he & Henrie & I sat at the table a long time.

Monday, June 12, 1933

As hot as ever and Ellen's temperature up - I wonder if the heat could do it. Ruth & I washed a blanket. After lunch while Ellen rested I cut off the legs of some old bloomers & made cool pants for myself. After I had fed Nuke we all went out on the front porch and I made hits & straps for some of Ellen's bloomers & made sun suits out of them.

Henrie joined us. Ma was driving with Nuke & I! It seems to be getting cooler but the children stay up till 7:30 again - the 3rd time & it seems to work very well. Hugie & I read all evening.

Tuesday, June 13, 1933

Cold! I put Nuko out in the sun at 7 as usual but this time he had on many clothes. A man came selling paper dusters, etc and I bought some & then got behind in my work. After lunch when Ellen noted I threw myself on my bed & slept - in spite of the cool, invigorating weather. After I had fed Nuko Ma came & we all sat in living room & mended & knitted. Heinie came & we had a cup of tea & some ginger bread Ma brought. Put the children to bed after my supper. Hugie went out & Martha dozed in for a minute. But cut a suit for Henry & sewed.

Wednesday, June 14, 1933

Colder! I couldn't put Nuko out at all and he was under my feet constantly till I gave him his bath. Henry went to Jennie Ellen stayed in Heinie's warm study till Hugie carried her down for lunch. I went down town & bought favors for Henry's party & Hugie & I went all over town & finally found an Indian suit for him. After lunch I started sewing up Henry's suit and continued after I had fed Nuko. Ma came for a little while. Ellen painted - she seems very well. After supper I put them to bed & then donned the dress Martha gave me to go to Martha's party - 2 tables in honor of Mrs. McCloud & Deborah's sister Anne.

Forgot to mention how Henry & Richard on Wednesday put a baby robin in the rabbit pen & when Hugo found it, it was half dead - whether it was done by the rabbits or the boys we do not know. This morning things were as usual and after lunch I started drying Henry's suits - had to go over to Cato for the right kind of soap. Stayed all afternoon - four suits. Mrs. came and read to Ellen. After supper I put the children to bed & then Pete came to play bridge. Jo is in Ohio. He had lots of fun and got quite mandarin - at least, I did. And Pete & Hugo ~~actually~~ won!

Besied myself in the morning with my usual work but after lunch I went out to work in my garden. Got the wall bed in fine shape fed Nils & put him on the upper porch & let Ellen go up in the sand box where she & Henry played with a dead worm! - building houses for it. I worked in the upper garden until I got tired & then we all had orangeade which Heinie made. Huxie was at the club for supper & Heinie & I ate chocolate lobst on the porch. Huxie & Ruth came back at 8 and Heinie & Huxie & I went to call first on Cleveland & then to Uncle Fred's. Mai, Cale & his wife are staying.

Just before I bathed Nils Huxie brought Nils and Ruth to see me. He had taken her children to Sunday School. Got my work done in time to go to Mai's a little early. Uncle Fred, Mai, Cale, Janet & Phil were already there & we had cork tails. I like Janet. After dinner Huxie golfed & I fed Nils & then Mai & Cousin Nan arrived. I knitted & the children were good. After supper I put the children to bed & then the whole contingent arrived with their tongues hanging out - Mai, Cale, Janet & Phil. Janet had a headache & wanted to go home early so she left at twelve!

Ruth informed me after lunch that she is going to leave on Saturday! My, My. Hughie was not here to lunch he is at the Sunday school picnic. I took a nap while Ellen rested - fed Mike - then Ma came. We sat on the porch & finished the second sock for Hughie - at last! He came soon, dripping wet - he had fallen in the lake! Jim only dismissed it. After supper I put the children to bed then sat on the porch for a while with Annie Hughie & John Hayes. Finally came in to write to Lily Beall who sent $5 + 3 bobble - + to Kelly & Ma came in too + we read.

Got mad at Ruth because she won't help clean house before she goes. Did my work + got her to help me wash a blanket. Then Hugh + I went down town to meet Hughie + to deposit Annie's wealth. After lunch I again napt - it is getting hot again - and after I had fed Mike I put him on the upper porch while I cleaned bureau drawers. Hugh had the hose turned on + Ellen watched and bossed him. After supper when I got the children to bed a Ruth Cain came for the job - quite nice. Then Hugh + I went down to see Ma + Dad.

Happy wedding day, Hugie!

my work, washing another blanket. After lunch Sister viewed another maid & then Hugie & the children & I started forth. We left Ellen at Miss & went on to Kanhans where we had a nice cold swim. Henry is as enthusiastic about the water as I am. It was a perfect day for a swim. We had cake home. Ellen had a nice time with the grand parents.

After I got them to bed I sat

My mind is weary from trying to decide which maid to take.
But I'll be sort of glad to get rid of Ruth. She has been a strain for the past year. Did my work as usual, exercising Ellen & what not. After lunch I wrote in my diary what E. noted - fed Mike and he came and we did some mending. Hugie went out to supper so I let the good-for-nothing Ruth have off and ate shredded wheat after I had fed my three. When they were all in bed I walked to Ruth Cain's, telling her to come & then on to Dr. Dolis to discuss Ellen - as usual he comforted me. Home - in bed.

Tried my best to get Ruth to stay for house cleaning this afternoon but on account of Dorothy's illness she would not - I wonder how sick D. is. But anyway I was glad to be able, after feeding kids & take all three children & Ma to Beach Creek to deliver Hainie there for the week-end. Henry & Hainie & I went in for a swim. Aunt Carrie made tea for us all on Aunt Mame's porch. Got home in time to call on Dad for a few minutes. After supper I put the children to bed & then Hugo read to me a detective story in Post.

Set Ruth to washing windows in children's room - I'll get that much done anyway. Doc came at 11 that Ellen's temperature was over 100.00 I kept her in bed & she slept. After lunch I fed kids who also seems under the weather. Ma came & sat with Ellen whose temperature continues to rise and later the doctor came & relieved my mind by saying it was just an upset stomach. Ma & I fixed an old linen shirt of his to fit me. Henry is fussy & peevish too such a family! After supper when my kids were asleep I changed the shirt.

Ellen seems much better today but has to stay in bed. Henry is O. K. but Mike still making messes. And I feel like the sickness! Ruth came very kindly to stay with Ellen & Mike while the rest of us went to Ma's to dinner. He came right back when Hughie went to play golf and I stretched out in Ellen's room & napped until Ma came. She read to the child then & later Dad came & I joined him & Mike in the front porch. It is very hot. Later I put them all to bed. Hughie went for Heinnie & didn't come till late & I felt sick & lonely. No sign feel better today & it's well. So the new Ruth came at 7 and I had to show her how to do every thing. Heinnie is going & like her. Got Ellen up at dawn. She is fine again. After lunch I settled down to make tally cards. Bess Cooney ordered. But with Mike & Ellen making messes & Jane & Henry making noises and upsetting flowers I had a hectic afternoon. Mike got fussy but when Heinnie came I was able to go on working. After I had the children in bed Hughie took me on a much needed spin - to see Ann Harding in "When Ladies Meet". Fine Kept Ruth & Heinie get breakfast again. She is getting along nicely. Did my other chores as usual. Heinie brought her lunch over. Hugie at Minnie's. Then I took a nap while Ellen rested & Ruth finished her work - she is not so speedy as Ruth Haupt. Later Ma came & we sat on the porch & did nothing - it is so very hot - I made orangeade which the children enjoyed & kids played with a piece of ice! After supper Cat came to see us while we were playing "pegity" with the children. Later Hugie & I came in & read.

Again I kept Ruth and spent the very hot morning doing my chores. Irish Mike would get better & lighten my work! After lunch Ellen rested and I repeated over my hat on the porch, trying to make it "mashed" & the tea I went to later with Hugie & Heinie at Cousin Adie's - in house of Ivan & his wife. A very nice tea. Ma was there. Ruth kept the children very nicely & had their supper ready when I got home. Later when the children were in bed Hugie & I took a nice cool ride up Snowshoe & then called on Ma & Dad.

Thursday, June 29, 1933

Peacefully went back to bed after getting the boys up and Ruth got breakfast very nicely - she is going to be good. I did my work as usual, including rubbing Ellen's hair with tangle and doing her exercises. After lunch I wrote in my diary etc while Ellen rested, then Jane & Henry appeared. I fed Mike & later Martha came. We sat in the house as it seemed a little cooler. Martha & I had iced tea & I made orangeade for the children. After I got the children in bed after supper Pete came in & had a bottle of beer and when he left Pugie read the murder story.

Friday, June 30, 1933

Ruth came early to scrub the porch - she's a jewel. I stayed in bed till late and managed to get three run works & the heat somehow. After lunch I took a nap while Ruth of her own accord (!) scrubbed cellar steps. Ted, Mike & Ma came and I worked on my Russian dress modernizing it - the refrigerator & oven won't work, Ellen broke book case glass & Henry some bottles & then Ruth came & told me she is not going to say - not enough pay! I was drunk - Pugie gave me a drink. He & Henry went to band concert - I read & Pugie read the murder story when he came.

Went in at 6 & made bunkoo top robbing crib. We are going to break that awful habit.
Had to go in again after I put him in bed at 10:30. He is very persistent. After lunch a girl came to see me about the job - but she wants more money, too. Doat on the porch & read for a while after feeding Mike & then let Ellen run thru the spinach with Heinie & Henry. It did not seem to hurt her. Mike & I were up there with the rabbits, too. After supper we got Sam to come to play bridge. Hugie was sort of cross after having to get her down town, but it was fun.

Sunday, July 2, 1933

I slept late & Heinie got the dial down's breakfast. Ruth came later to wash the dishes. I did my work & Heinie, the three children & I went to Ma's to dinner.
Hugie was at Bob Morris's & they went to golf at Fort Ham.
It rained all afternoon and I played old maid's with Henry & Ellen mostly.
Ellen doesn't look well but her temperature was actually normal today.
Hugie came for us. Put the children to bed & at 7:30 we had supper at Heinie's.
Pete was there. We played "pegity" until we all went to sleep.

A nice bracing cold day but I am depressed by the maid situation. A Miss Stout came to see me while I was eating breakfast but later calling up people I found she is too temperamental. After lunch I went to see Mrs. Mc Nichol about Ann, no good. I'm getting a permanent headache worrying about maids. Ma came & later Minnie came, so I walked home with Ma pushing Mike in his carriage. Hugie was late for dinner. Finally I got children to bed & wrote in my diary & wrote many checks & felt more depressed than ever. But then

Tuesday, July 4, 1933

The children were all excited and I let Ellen get up a little earlier so they could go out front with their Daddy & shoot fire crackers. I had to go to work as Ruth left after breakfast. I interviewed another maid - Relda Butteroff! We had a picnic lunch in the garden & Hugie & Minnie went off to Look Haven. Ma came after I had fed Mike & we all sat on front porch & Ellen & I shot off some more crackers. Then I had to them. I got supper ready but Hugie didn't come till 7:30. Ma & Dad came up to see the "fireworks" children to bed at 9:30!! Then I sent for Relda Poorman but got Relda! to stay here while Hugie, Minnie, Relda & Tom & I went to Park to dance.

Wednesday, July 5, 1933

In bed at 2, quite wiggly but not enough so to warrant the terrible headache I had when I was awakened at 7. Stayed in bed till 9 and managed to drag thru my work somehow. Took a nap while Ellen norted fed Mike & left him on the upper porch & came down to quietly read. Martha soon appeared & we had tea & I began to feel better. Then Hugie came to take me & Heinnie & all 3 children to Ansonia on business. Martha couldn't go. It was a beautiful day & a beautiful ride. After supper when Dad & E. in bed Hugie & I went down to call on Ma & Dad but left to go to bed early.

Thursday, July 6, 1933

Tell fine today. You came in while I was bathing Mike. Rubbed Ellen's hair with tonic it is not coming out as we expected. After lunch I got Ruth to stay and clean the linen closet and the children's room. Will I ever finish house cleaning this year? She came & stayed downstairs with the children for a while. After I had the children in bed Mrs. Red Blanchard came to see Heinnie & as she & Hugie were watching an parachute jumper I talked to her - she is nice. Later when Hugie was here Cousin Dan came to call - she was nice too. Then I wrote checks, etc.

Beau sent me a check for $3. 2ⁱⁿ was awakened at 6 by that crazy kaiser working his crib - he is too persistent. Later Hugie presented me with $5 - still later Ellen beamingly gave me a beautiful set of picnic plates. Henry & I went down town to meet Hugie. Much discussion about a picnic which was finally settled & Ruth & I worked hard making sandwiches.

Henry, after disappearing with Heinie, presented me with another picnic set. We took them both with us when Hugie took me, H & E. Heinie, Gen & Jane to Hawthorn for a wonderful swim - O!
We had our supper there & were all happy. Ellen went in water!
Home at 8 & then Hugie & I went to see Ma & Dad - another $5! and a bottle of beer - nice day.

Managed to get my work done in time to go down town & start Hilke's savings account with the money Ma gave me in December!! Dad sounded - and what a relief to my mind now. After lunch I wrote to Beau, fed Hilke & then Martha came, bringing me a bottle of powder as a birth day present! She & Heinie & I & the three children went to Gen's with our sewing. Dottie Schad was there too and we had a nice tea party. When I had the children in bed Hugie & I went to call on Misses Sarah & Mary Valentine at their beloved house. Very nice.
We went in to Heinie's & played pop. with Papa & Dale.

Sunday, July 9, 1933

I surprised Ma by appearing at early church. Got the children's treat fasts, bathed Niles, etc. Ruth came to clean up in the kitchen. We went to this to dinner & after I had fed Niles I took Ma & the children for a ride out Buffalo Run & got back just as Dad had finished his nap. Later I went home & put the children to bed before Hughie returned from his golf. Ellen has learned to say the Lord's prayer - took her just about a week. After supper I read the Sunday papers, & changed out the magazine racks.

Monday, July 10, 1933

Chores as usual with a big washing, but had time to pick a lovely bunch of flowers before lunch. Afterward I scrubbed on the machine, an old white dress of Ma's to work on, after I had fed Niles when my afternoon guests began to arrive - Ma, the Cat & childred Morris with her two children. The latter had a fine time with H. & E. & Richard & the class including Heinie, had tea & good cakes that Ruth had baked. After supper Hughie & I went up to the Sheffers to welcome Jo back down midgt. We played bridge after I had finished my dish & the men were

A. M. uneventful. After lunch I went to work in the garden, weeding. Ted likes & took him out there too. I worked hard until four when I dressed to go with Heinie to see the P.O. corner stone laid. We took all the children. There was quite a social gathering at the Burns corner - Grace was there & very nice! We could not see much of the ceremony - too many Masons. But anyway we were present at that historical event! After supper Hugo had a meeting & Ruth stayed here while Heinie & I went to see a very good German picture - "Bar-thine's Daughter" - beautiful Ellen flew into a tantrum because I wouldn't let her get up early to play with a kitten! Otherwise the morning was as usual. But after lunch Ruth and I got to work cleaning the den. It is an awful little room to clean, so many things on the walls - and Ma came up & Heinie brought iced tea for me & Ruth & altogether we didn't get as much done as we expected - not the bathroom. After supper Hugo got to work cleaning the cellar so I went down to Dad's & put the olives on for the family's fruit ^{me in} making

Thursday, July 13, 1933

Did my work as usual and after lunch I had to take a "nap" until time to get Mike up. But then I settled on the front porch to read "As the Earth Turns" by Gladys Hasty Carroll - a splendid tale of a Maine farmer & his family. Ma came and the children interrupted me so I didn't get far. But after supper - shredded wheat on the porch as Huguie was away - I settled to it once more and read stolidly while Heini sewed on machine. Huguie came home early but I read on. It's a long time since I've read a book.

Friday, July 14, 1933

Attended to my duties and had time to go down town before lunch.
It was this afternoon I tried to read so hard - yesterday I took Ma & the children for a ride to State College so Hugie had left the car.
And today when Ma came & interrupted my reading I framed one of Caroline's paintings so I had finally got the frame filled by Mr. Hunter. Then I had to help Ruth a bit to get ready for our dinner party - John & Martha came & it was a success - steak & ^{potatoes} vegetables. Hugie & John were ^{here} too.

Saturday, July 15, 1933

Slept late by mistake and had a hard time catching up. After lunch I cleaned out the bathroom and Ruth cleaned it while I read my beloved book. After I had fed Mike I put it to rights again and then Bobbie Keller & her oldest Ann, came to see us. Heenie made tea. When she left I could read a little before getting the children's supper. Had time with Heenie & then dashed the children to bed when Hugie came to take me to build him to see my long-anticipated by mail letter to Ronald Coleman. Very nice.

Sunday, July 16, 1933

Hugie went off to Williamsport to golf before I had got round to my breakfast! Heenie took Ellen to church with her - meaning my hat! Ma and Dad & Heenie came here to dinner - a very nicely-cooked dinner. Dad left after I brought Mike down but Ma stayed, with her knitting and I, too started knitting a cap for Ellen. Later when I was giving children their supper Mary & Bill Mc C. dropped in. Heenie & I ate on the porch & I finished that excellent book before Hugie came home. Glad to see him.

Monday, July 17, 1933

The morning was much the same as usual, but after lunch Hugie took Ellen & me down to Dr. Dale's - he looked her over carefully & says she is fine, but to continue to go easy. And I felt much better about her - I'm not so worried about the slight rise in temperature.

After I had fed Nukko I was going to clean the book case but was obligated to have Martha walk in just then.

She sat on the porch knitting & drinking tea. She is going to Phila. tomorrow to Rachel's wedding. After supper when I had got the children to bed Hugie & I sat on porch till mosquitoes drove us in & then he read to me. I knitted

After I had my classes all done I went down town to meet Hugie who came home instead of going to Kiowa as he is going to be away so very much. After lunch I got to work on the book case. He came & helped me & egged me on to do the side board drawers etc. When she left I had a terrible time with Nukko getting into every thing. Hugie was away & supper & I ate shredded wheat and after I had the children in bed I had a lovely time fixing up the children's baby books, etc. - I wonder if they will ever look at them. Hugie came early & we each read.

Wednesday, July 19, 1933

A. M. uneventful. After lunch Ruth and I got to work cleaning the living room. I'm not doing the dining room at the same time this year. We worked hard & the day grew hot. Hugie came home to go to golf & drop the cracker can on one of my favorite lamps! Broken it a little. The children were at Richard's birthday party & Heinie had Nikes when he grew fussy on the upper porch. Ruth got children's supper & then left. I ate shredded wheat and Heinie was out & later fell asleep on the davenport. He phoned & woke me & told me to go to bed & so I did!

Thursday, July 20, 1933

Hugie went off to Williamsport & the golf match at ten thirty. I went in as usual. After lunch I took all the glass out of the corner cupboard & washed the shelves. Fed Nikes & put him on the porch - raked it is hot today. Then Ma came & we washed glasses galore. I have the car so I went to bring Dad up. I made lemonade & then Ma & I did the kitchen corner cupboard. Quite a days work. I shredded wheat again & after I had the children in bed, wrote in diary etc. - Ruth suddenly burst in saying she wants to work in match factory tomorrow! I said if she could it with Hans & to come

Friday, July 21, 1933

No Ruth of any kind came & the little fire was out and all in all I was ready to give up. But Heino got to work & helped me. Stook hiked down to Ma's & then Heino, Henry & Ellen, Jo & her two & I started for Beech Creek. We went to the little island & got all nicely settled when a lot of boys came. We ate our lunch but the boys stayed & then Langridge was so vile that finally we left & went to Martin's Grove which turned out to be ideal bath for the children & for us. I put Ellen to bed right after her supper - she was tired. Then Henry & soon Heino & I went to.

Saturday, July 22, 1933

Relda was here right & early & I showed her how to get breakfast, etc. - but she nearly drove me wild with inane questions. I had to help with lunch. I don't believe she knows much about cooking. It is frightfully hot. After I had fed Heino Heino and I started to put together a jigsaw puzzle. Ma did not come. A terrible thunder storm. Hugo came just before supper - my, but I was glad to see him again. He told us of his adventures while Heino and I worked on that quite difficult thing of Martin's.

Sunday, July 23, 1933

Nikes would let no one sleep. Bop, it's hard to break him of rattling his crib. I did all the work - relieved at not having any helples remain around! Then Hugie took us all down to Ma's to dinner. And after I had fed Nikes he took Ma & me & the children for a nice ride in the Ridges. We stoppt in to see Dad again when we got back but Dad wasn't there - so we drove out to see the circus settling itself at the circus grounds. Heine got supper. Then she & I finished the puzzle while Hugie read the Post-mystery serial aloud.

Ruth Kane came to see me in the evening.
Monday, July 24, 1933

Helped Relda get breakfast and helped her most of the morning in spite of wishing to take the children to see the circus parade. We saw it from Cousin John Blawie's office. I took Nikes to Ma before his nap & he stayed there while Hugie & I took Henry & Ellen to their first circus - Downie Bros. & not bad. H. & E. were all eyes but didn't know which way to look. Henry took it more calmly than Ellen. We got home just before a storm. Helped Relda get supper - I am discouraged about her. Maybe it is only this awful heat. Hugie & I read Ellen Happy Birthday, Ellen!

Tuesday, July 25, 1933

Richard brought Ellen painting set. I was so busy instructing Relda that I had hardly time to give Ellen the bedroom slipper I got for her. Heimir gave her a book. Later I went down town & Hugie got some modeling clay for her & I got a pair of socks & 2 handkerchiefs for her as Henry had instructed me!! Mike gave her a telephone for doll house. We stop to get a birthday cake from Ma - also a cute little bunch of flowers from his late Relda had nothing done - she hopeless, but finally we got to dessert - ice cream & the cake & Heimir joined us. Ma came brought Ellen a telephone & $3. Mildred & Eddie & her two came later. ^{Pete & Jo to} Lemonade & cake. ^{big & in}

Wednesday, July 26, 1933

Helped Relda again and later in the morning I told her Jim looking for another girl & she cried! I feel sorry for her but she's hopeless. After lunch I took a much-needed nap until Ma fortunately woke me. Ted Mike & Pat on the porch with my mending. First Mrs. Rendleton, a colored woman came to see me about the job. Then Margaret Walker brought her baby, but Ma got nearly all the mending done without me. After supper Stella Shaffer, another applicant came & then Hugie & I took a ride as Relda wanted to wait for her uncle at our house - till 11! We went to see Dad, too - and Jim so tired

Slept as late as I could and did as little work as possible which wasn't saying much as I have to help Relda such a lot - Inever knew a stupid girl. After lunch I took a nap, fed Mike and cut out the front of a pair of rompers so I could make it while sitting on the porch with Ma. While we were there Deborah joined us, with little Julia Warner + we had tea. Helped Relda get supper and finally Wugie and I drove her home rather than have her sit here till 11! Then he read the mystery story to Heinie + me.

Friday, July 28, 1933

This morning just like yesterday morning except Relda seemed even more offensive to word from Stella so after lunch I went to see Eva Jean Rachan - she will come Monday. Stopped to see Janet. Fed Mike and took him down to Mrs - Heinie has the other two swimming. I sat with Ma + Dad a bit + then went to a tea at Betty Gots' in honor of Gus' friend Mrs. Morris. After supper Wugie + I drove to Litchfield to see Eddie Carter in "Kid from Spain". We had a fine time but Heinie had a heck of a time getting Relda home - got stuck just to take her.

Saturday, July 29, 1933

The last day of Relda & her terrible voice & questions - praises be! I did a big washing and was tired & tired by the time I had to help with lunch. It is terrifically hot, too. After lunch I fixed the electric clock so it actually runs again! Fed Mike & Ellen went down town with Cat, a long promised event.
He got home just in time to go with Hugo & me & the children & Libby Ann to the Penneman's down at the club.
After a long wait Hugo took us all for a ride on the merry-go-round. After supper Hugo & I sat on porch till mosquitoes chased us in - that is, I sat on porch

Sunday, July 30, 1933

No one woke till 8! But from then on I rushed from the kitchen a much-needed cleaning and finally got to Mrs. H. dinner. After I had fed Mike & the children & I took a nice ride - we stop on a hill to pick flowers I heard Ellen scream & saw the car rolling down the hill! I ran & got in it but didn't do much good - it stop, however.
Ellen screamed terribly all the time. Mrs. & I were badly scared. Stop & see Dad a while before coming home. Hugo out to supper.
Got things in shape for Ellen & I read till Hugo

Monday, July 31, 1933

Ernjean came and showed her how to get breakfast etc. She is so nice & quiet and says "yes, Mrs. Dingley" instead of "all right." I did my own work as usual. It is frightfully hot. Ellen got sick all over the dinner part just before lunch - orange juice a little off this morning. I'm going to give it to them with their breakfast hereafter. I read to her until time to feed Mike, then I stretched Mike's combers until Hugh's came - he & I dashed out to Spring Creek for a quick, cold swim.
It was fun. Nice supper by Ernjean but too hot to do anything afterward. Read a little.

Tuesday, August 1, 1933

Again I helped Ernjean - but she is no dumbbell - I think she's going to be excellent.
A.M. as usual. After lunch which was late I fed Mike & got the children ready to go to Curtis to swim or at least, to cool off. We left Mike with Ma & went with Jo & Peter & Susie & Hain and had a lot of fun although the place was dirty & the current strong. Stewart Longell came & stayed to supper.
Hugh was late, & cross & wouldn't go with us later when Stewart took Pete & Jo & Keim & Tom & Aunt & me to the big indoor pool at the College. I don't know when I've had such a good time.

Wednesday, August 2, 1933

Evajean is getting along beautifully & we all like her - so different from Relda!
I got thru my small wash in a hurry & went down town & walked home with Kugie. It rained and cooled it off considerably. After lunch I worked on the machine and after I had fed Wilko Martha came with her knitting & I heard all about Rachel's wedding & told her all about my maids said she left!
Karin joined us at tea. Before we had finished supper Miss Sarah Valentine came to call. Then we went down to see Ma & Dad. Kugie

Thursday, August 3, 1933

Hated to get up - it was so nice & cool this morning.
Karin has a cold & stayed home from work & watched me bathe Wilko - he is such a cute baby. And after lunch Evajean & I got to work cleaning the dining room as it is so much cooler today. Wilko was good up on the porch & Ellen & Henry played together nicely & we got along beautifully - at least my house cleaning is practically done! After supper poor Henry got sick, but in the potty, nicely. Then I wrote in my diary, and paid bills and finally Kugie read to me.

Friday, August 4, 1933

Busy time ordering my dinner for tonight. And got my work done dis-jointedly. After lunch I took a much-needed nap. Fed Mike & Ma came. We all went up in the garden & Ma helped me weed. Then I picked & arranged a couple of bouquets. Dad came, too, but didn't stay long. Helped Evagran set the table after the children had their supper. Mr. Andrews & Heinie came to dinner. It was all a great success. Evagran did beautifully. The children bathed themselves. Ray & Mr. A. went to a poker party. Heinie & I read trash.

Saturday, August 5, 1933

Quite cool this morning - doted Mike up in sweater when I put him out at seven. Ma phoned that Beau is coming. And Betty Ray is coming to "room" with Heinie - "an air of excitement invaded the place". After lunch I talked to Betty & Jean Blanchard over at Reid's till time to feed Mike, and after that I took him & the other two down to Ma's where we waited in vain for Beau's arrival. After supper we, Hugo & I went down again and this time the old man was there - just the same as always. We sat on the porch & talked till bedtime.

Sunday, August 6, 1933

For the first time in ages I didn't get head fast - waggon was here. Having nothing to rush about I conceived an idea to have a party for Hugie & after con-fering with Heinie, called the guests. At one we went down to Ma's to dinner.
Hugie went to play golf and Beau took Ma & the three children & me for a ride in Hugie's car. Came back to see Dad for a while before supper time. I was tired & depressed - have been for a couple of days - billions? Later I went with Hugie to take the wash to the laundry & we had a fine time all the Happy Birthday, Hugie.

gave him some sock wool.
(will give the soap for Juan!) Did my chores in a hurry & went down town. Bought a cake which we had at lunch with 3 candles on it, much to the children's delight. They each gave him a waste basket & Heinie a knife. After lunch I took a nap, fed Mike & Ma & Beau arrived - also here for the party. Later Hugie was cutting the grass & I was mad because he'd see us making sandwiches
- & he did! I spent the rest of the time trying - & succeeding in convincing him there was no party. at 8:30 it arrived - Martha, John Oate, Jo, Tom, Heinie, Betty Q, Beau Charles, Gen & Cat. Games, drinks & lots of noise. Tom got tight & wasn't happy.

Tuesday, August 8, 1933

Slept late but felt fine when I finally did get up.
Did my work as usual, thinking of the nice party I had for Hugie - he did seem pleased. After lunch I wrote in my diary etc till time to get kirk up. Then Martha came, & we had tea on porch.
Hugie came home to cut grass & Bean & Heinie dropt in & we discussed the party & Louis's behavior.
Hugie moved Ellie's bed down I am delighted to have her under my wing again! Hugie went to hospital meeting.
& I put new oil cloth in kitchen & then read till he came home.

Wednesday, August 9, 1933

I picked a darling bunch of flowers before breakfast and after my work was all done I went to Hugie's room and we called on Mrs.
Dale - the flowers were for the doctor who has had a stroke! Poor soul. After lunch Jo took Heinie & me & Ellen & Harry & Peter & Susan to Martins Grove to swim. Bean took Ma in his car. Unfortunately we stopt in Beech Creek & Aunt Gertie joined us. Ma was not like her. After supper Jo & Betty Ray stopt in and Bean appeared and we sat on the porch till he left. Read.

Hugie danced with Eliza & with Dr. Hoffman! Only Hugie Thursday, August 10, 1933 & Eliza disappeared!

Rain at last in Lincoln! I I missed around doing other things than washing.
I need the sun to see pine any washing. After lunch Hugie stayed home, washing every thing he could find around the house, but I took a nap. After Dad Mike fed & dressed I too began mending but Hugie had gone to the club in sort of a huff - he's always getting mad at me lately.
I darned socks by machine.
At about 10 o'clock & at nine Pete came to take Nannie Lena & Jo & me to the club to meet Hugie. After some drinks we went to dance at Park.
Fred & Lorraine & Lorraine & Fred

Friday, August 11, 1933

Still raining, but a letter from Stew Conyell put me in a panic - they are coming for a picnic tomorrow and I've got to arrange it - which took plenty of time, but I did manage to get a nap after lunch. Ma came later while Bea played tennis but she left before Martha & Ruth & Lorraine came too late for tea, thank goodness.
After supper Hugie was going to read to me but first Nannie interrupted us and then Charles came in with his Princeton friends, Doc Deist & Wm Crawford.

Saturday, August 12, 1933

Ha! a nice day! Let planned she can't go to picnic so after much flowing I asked Eliza Blackburn & Quacy.
I don't know how I managed to get my work done with my mind running wild with plans. But finally after lunch we were off to Karthaus - the Congells, Jim Pete & Jo. Puss, Eliza, Brian Betty Ray, Ringio & me & Marian Home.
Jim came after supper with one of Charlie's friends. We went swimming & then cooked hamburg & had a delicious supper. Then I went in swimming again in the dark - from the ball game time at 12 - finally after 2 hrs. I found Charlie & his other friends - black and white.

Sunday, August 13, 1933

Wagean gave the children their breakfast early, but needed help when their grand ups sat down - Heine included. I finally got take bathed & to bed in spite of Charlie & his friends and a shower of others coming in. Went with Longells up to see Martha. Decided they were staying for dinner!
So Hugie took us to the club - the Longells & Jim & Marian. We came home & sat on porch till a storm passed - they finally left! Then I washed diapers! Beau was here for a while. Hugie cross & disturbed - mad news.

Monday, August 14, 1933

Things back to normal and I did an enormous wasting. After lunch I cut out the newspapers that I ordered and after feeding Miles began to smoke them. Ma came, and later when Augie came to dress for golf I rushed down in the car to get Dad - but Augie didn't like it much. He's so often in a bad humor lately. At supper he was better tho and took me to see "Christopher Strong" with Katherine Hepburn and Colin Clive.
It was not so good. We read for a while afterward

Tuesday, August 15, 1933

Augie scolded me about Henry's whining before breakfast and it was just too much and I cried. I cannot stand this continual scolding for ever. Maybe it will be better now. Later the children & I went down town with Ma who bought them peanuts. After lunch I took a nap, then smoked when I had Miles dressed.
Heinie made tea for me & herself - nice. Wagon "had off" so we went to Heinie's for supper. Tom there also Norman Volute! Nice except Henry cut his lip & Ellen had a tantrum! Pete & Bea drop in but the

Wednesday, August 16, 1933

Maurice & Katherine's waffle stop in for a moment during the morning, but even then I had time to go to town with Heinie & home with Hugie.
After lunch I had the car so I took Heinie, Ma & Beau & Henry & Ellen & Jane to the grove to swim. We had lots of fun. Jane was so cute and good, too, and every one seemed in such a good humor. I cannot say so much for Hugie at supper - what has got into the man, to be always growling. He's a pessimist.
I tried to write up my diary after dinner but ended by reading

Thursday, August 17, 1933

Beau came to see me while I was doing the washing and we had a nice chat with him following me about my duties. After lunch I took a nap until Heinie woke me to dress to go to Eliza Blackburn's bridge party at Mrs. Spangler's. It was very nice except that we couldn't smoke! Very large refreshments so I was glad Hugie wasn't coming to supper. After the children's supper Heinie & the three children & I walked to Charlie Kellers. I put them to bed & then spent hours writing up this diary and when Hugie came I ate some up

Friday, August 18, 1933

Beau came while I was battering Niles & stayed a long time trying to make up his mind about tomorrow night. Finally I got a letter from Mr. B. Connell saying the party in Williamsport is all off! so that settled him. But not me. I called up Hugie in State College to see if he wanted to go to the dance tonight but he didn't.
I stitched some pms, then here & later when Martha & Kath Wolfe came. I saved them by hand. Heine made tea for us.
After supper Hugie was cross because we weren't going to dance.
But I went to Janet's very nice Stables of bridge. Grace was in, &

Saturday, August 19, 1933

Heine and I went to market at 8:30 - quite fun. Then I did my chores and was going down town with her again but Neil and Morris came to call and took up my spare time.
Hugie at the college golf tournament and Heine came to lunch. I took a nap & Beau came to take Heine to Beech Creek at two. She will be there two weeks.
The Chil den went to Pickens & Niles played angelically all afternoon while I saved rompers. After supper Hugie & I took Pete & Jo up to the college where we had a nice swim in the pool, & then rode

Sunday, August 20, 1933

Evagran got breakfast - no more Sunday morning work for me! I leisurely did all my work & showed Evagran how I wanted things for dinner - Ma, Dad & Bean came to it, & it was delicious.
I certainly got something when I got Evagran! Huguie went to play golf and after a while Bean took Ma & the three babies & me for a ride in Huguie's car. Gave the children their supper & then had to get ours. Dinner delicious! Huguie & I read the papers & were happy until we got into a "miserable fight over a bag of buggy peaches".
How stupid Mother & I was to take us to the

Monday, August 21, 1933

Rainy & nasty and we were thinking of family picnic.
Got my work done quickly & went over to call on Cat but she wasn't home so I sewed on our own porch.
After lunch I got to work and wrote to Mary! After I had fed Mike I stitched another pair of rompers for Martha. Ma & Bean came in for a little while and got Mike upset when they left. I also put a collar on Ellen's red dress to make it more becoming. Evagran put the children to bed while Huguie & I went to see Helen Hayes & Robert Hooper in "Another Language".

Tuesday, August 22, 1933

Still raining - & cold. When I had my work done I did a lot of mending. After lunch I set out to read but soon got too sleepy. Ellen fell asleep, too, and Ma came much later to find us so and Cat Lore sitting on the porch! I hurried to feed Mike & join them. Later Eliza brought Beau and Doodle tea for them all. When Eliza left Hugie came & then Pete. Quite a calling day - and all the time there seemed to be millions of children here. After supper Hugie and I each read serials in the Post until late into the night.

Wednesday, August 23, 1933

More rain. And Ellen seems under the weather. I did very little washing and then sat on porch with children, sewing. After lunch I stitched on machine. After feeding Mike Ellen and I sat on the davenport side by side sewing. Henry over at Richard's. Hugie came home to finish his story in the Post. Mike a pest. Hard rain outside. Later Hugie & I went to Ma's to dinner - Mike & there, too. Farewell party to Beau. I worked on dress I started ages ago. Beau & Hugie played with balloons, Ellen.

At supper time Niles fell off the table again! Broke Thursday, August 24, 1933 ^{pieces off} teeth.

The rabbit pen in a turmoil - Bourne had nine bunnies lost night! Hugie busy fixing them up - gave Blackie away.
Then Ma telephoned that Judge Ward died. Poor Beau.
Ma came to lunch later as Dad + Beau deserted her.
After lunch I finished the dress for the children's shop at last! And after I fed Niles I started the sweater to the skirt Ma is knitting. But we both felt lazy + played with Niles mostly. Ellen is feeling fine again. Hugie came home unexpectedly + brought clam chowder.
He left again + Ma came again - and I knitted on.

Friday, August 25, 1933

Slept late and did a little work as I could. After lunch I took a nap. Fed Niles and settled on the porch with my knitting.
Ma came - she is so upset about Beau not having a home any more in N. Y. I think the Judge will surely leave him some thing.
The children were all peofious and I was glad when supper time came. We stayed to supper too but had to leave soon after as Hugie + I went to join 3 tables of bridge in honor of Rachel Whitman + her husband. He is very nice + the party was lots of fun.

Saturday, August 26, 1933

Again slept late - but wakeup doesn't seem to care.
And after lunch I was delayed getting to my nap, consequently over slept.

It is hot - nice swimming weather & I can't go! Ma and I knitted on the porch nothing very eventful happened. The hummers are coming along fine, except the one that died. I made orangeade for Ma & the children - even Nuko had some. Later Martha came for me to go to her enormous party for Rachel at the club.
Thirty-six to dinner & bridge.
I had fun, especially with Charley & his pint in his car.
But I don't envy Rachel ^{her divorce} ~~husband~~

Sunday, August 27, 1933

Was wakened early by Harry wanting to know what day it was! Too sleepy to murder him. And when I got up later I found Ellen in bed with Nuko! Later we all went to Ma's to dinner.
Daddy is in Lancaster. Ma & I took the children for a ride - a short one as I was sleepy and the air hot.
We went back to her house & made lemonade. Bobby Centin was there. Got supper for the children & Hugsie.
Spent the evening reading the Sunday paper & cutting out coupons & mail for cooking directions etc. Hugsie is in a ^{fine} good humor ^{these} days.

Monday, August 28, 1933

Up and at 'em again - it is cooler and there is lots of work to be done - no parties in the offing. After lunch I cut out a romper suit for Nuko and after I fed him I started to sew it. Ma came with her knitting - the skirt is almost finished. Hugie came early to get the grass and the children buzzed around. Nice typical American family. After supper I looked Edmund into bed & then Hugie took Ma & Dad & me to see George Culiss in "Vultaro", a comic play. We went to Dad's for beer afterwards.

17 Wrote to Beau in the evening when I got a feeling sorry for him.
Tuesday, August 29, 1933

Got my work done early and took Henry & Ellen down town. We met Hugie & he drove them home while I looked at dresses for myself. Tried them on for Hugie after lunch and after I had fed Nuko when Ma & Martha were here. Tried them on again. We all like the same one!! Made tea and everything was comfortable as it always is when Martha is here. Jim starting to leave break Nuko in car now. Hugie went out after supper. Sewed rompers on machine & then read murder story till I got creepy.

Wednesday, August 30, 1933

Cold - but I sat in the warm sun to do a little mending before bathing Niles and it felt hot - so after lunch I got the bathing suits together and made orangeade. At one-thirty Mildred Morris & her two came for me & my two and we drove to Bear Creek where we picked up Heinnie and went to Martin's Grove for a nice swim. We sat so long in the nice sun that it was late when we got home. Niles was having a fine time with Evagran. After dinner Hugie & I did odd jobs, had a roughhouse chasing each other way down the street!! And read a little

I have started giving all three children cod-liver oil, the first time I ever have.

A. M. much as usual. After lunch I succumbed to my bad habit and took a nap. Later when Niles & I were on the porch Ma brought the skirt which I took off the needles & started to crochet around the bottom. She worked on my rompers. Ellen served with us until more active fun lured her away. Hugie went to club to dinner - Date shredded wheat and after the house was nice & quiet I wrote on my baby books, etc. Pete dropped in for a moment. Jo is sick.

Friday, September 1, 1933

After I had my small washing done I went up to call on Jo until lunch time. After lunch I took a nap, fed Nuko, ironed two dresses to take to the children's shop in State College and then got the children & Ma & headed for same shop.
Mrs. Edmiston was my vice.
Then we all had big ice cream cones and tried to get Ma some ferns. Very pleasant afternoon. And after supper Huguie took me to see Melvyn Dietrich in "Song of Songs" which we both enjoyed. Home early so I had time to pay all my bills - such big bills.

Saturday, September 2, 1933

It is getting warm again.
Such crazy weather. Ma took the children downtown and I joined them when I finally had my work done. Huguie drove us all home. After lunch I again napped and after feeding Nuko I worked on his rompers - button holes. Ma came & the children played very nicely alone - the cod-dler ail seems to be improving their dispositions! After I had them in bed at seven I made sandwiches & prepared Nuko's rompers & then Ruth & John came for a splendid game of bridge - Ma & I observed until a grand slam at the end.

Sunday, September 3, 1933

Another nice leisurely Sunday morning and dinner at Ma's. Mike wearing his new overalls.
Hughie did not go to play golf but after while took me & the children & me for a little ride - down to the club & air field. We saw a rain storm coming over the mountain ranch & Ellen's interest. Henry intends only in the airplanes. I went to go to Beech Creek with Hughie to get Heini but Evagene didn't turn up! Dura read, but after I had the children in bed & settled down to read the paper I felt better.
Nice to have Heini home.

Monday, September 4, 1933

Evagene says she got caught in storm last night, but she is a good girl.
Rain so I didn't do much washing & was sitting on porch when Agnes Scott & Libby Davis arrived to see Heini. I had them all stay blind.
Hughie at the club & he phoned to say Pau had beaten him.
Too bad, poor Hughie. Later Heini & I took the children to the club - fun. After supper I changed my dress & looked very nice to go with the president to the club dance - fun! & lots of fun. Sort of different. Hughie made nice ^{when he} ~~made nice~~ ^{one piece}

Tuesday, September 5, 1933

Slept at 2 & up at 6 to be violently ill!! But felt a lot better at seven when I got the children up. I was in bed again when Henry raced down the street to meet his Hughes to go to kindergarten. But he came home at noon crying - all tired out. After lunch I took a nap then got Mike up - Ma came & scolded me for being so late with Mike. Then we knitted on the porch until Hugie came to take me & the children for a ride. He treated us to cones, too. After supper Hugie & Heinies I went to see Mildred - not at home - so Hugie & I read -

Wednesday, September 6, 1933

Henry went off to kindergarten and then Ellen started to school - the house strangely quiet with only Mike babbling for a little while before his nap. I went down town when my work was done. After lunch I wrote in diary etc. - funny not to have Ellen so disappointed but she has whole day sessions now. Later Mike & I sat on front porch & no one came to talk to us. After supper Charley came in to take us to Philadelphia but no one to stay with children, much to Hugie's disgust. I went down to call on Dad & Ma. Fine visit. O

Thursday, September 7, 1933

The rabbits are snacks old & perfectly darling. Hug is & Ellen are crazy about them. I did my work according to schedule. After lunch I took a nap and Ma came & found me late with Mike hosed. She kept him on the porch for an while I did a little work in the garden. It is hot & sunny. Pretty good record with training Mike today - he is very hard & vain. After supper Charley came to take us to Philipshury to see the Mc Fadden's. We stop at many beer parlors. I had gin but got no effect. We 7. nice when we finally found them. 70¢ - home & one.

Friday, September 8, 1933

Terribly hot - but the children went gayly off to their rising schools. I did my work & then trotted down town. After lunch I took a nap & Hug went to James' & all were quiet. After I had fed Mike, Martha came but was hardly settled before John took her away so I called up Cat & she came over to keep me company. I made orangeade, and put Mike on the potty & knitted between times! In the evening Hug is read aloud to me - "Circus Day" by Courtney Riley Cooper. It is intensely interesting. Heine's listned in later. I knitted.

Saturday, September 9, 1933

A. M. much as usual - except that I walked to the corner to meet Ma for some eggs & went to see Stuart Gast about putting on another baby show! After lunch Heinie & I took H. & E. & Jane to Martin's Grove for a swim. The water was cold but I loved it. Henry was balky at first & wouldn't go in - but finally did & had a fine time. We stopped for milk at Waq-cus - she didn't have to come back as Hugo was at the club at a dinner for the caddies. He came home early, tho, and continued reading the circus book to Heinie & me. I did some of

Never batted an eye until eight! Had time during the morning to cut the children's hair. We all went to Ma's to dinner. Hugie golfed & when Dad went to his nap Ma & I took the children for a ride to Yarnall - the view was beautiful, and a clear bright day. Went back to Dad for a while. He is not well & worries Ma so much. I put the children to bed before my supper - starting winter milk. Heinie got supper and later Pete & I came in. We showed them the rabbits by flashlight - they are so cute!

Monday, September 11, 1933

after his breakfast Henry suddenly announced that he was not going to kindergarten! I had a time with him - Hugie finally took him in the car. Ellen went gaily off to hers - she loves it! And I got to work. After lunch I took a nap to get warm! Ted & Niles & then Martha came - we sat on the porch in spite of the cold & rain - just as had in the house. And the hot tea went to the spot. Put the children to bed early. After supper Hugie had a meeting, during which time I wrote in diary & to Ellen when he came home he read the circles book while I knitted.

Tuesday, September 12, 1933

Henry didn't want to go again so I just let him alone & he played nicely by him self. I did my work as usual. Stuart Gast dropped in to see me about the Baby Show I'm going to have again. After lunch I took a nap - Ma came later and Niles was very cute. He sat on porch & after she left Jo & Cat came up for a while - I knitted constantly. After supper Hugie went to a meeting so I got Jo & Cat & Niles to come to play bridge - but I decided I hadn't - I had no luck. Hugie came home early & might have read to me, & I am Hayes coming in, too.

Wednesday, September 13, 1933

Again Henry did not go to Kindergarten - and seemed rather at a loss what to do. It is cold + rainy. I went down town - walked part way with Daddy. After lunch I wrote out a set of rules for the Reading class - fed Mike + bundled him up to play on the porch. Ma came + we sat there with our coats on. Uncle F. dropped in to see the rabbits + invited us to dinner Friday. Hugué came home early to cut the grass. After dinner Heinnie + I went to see Martha Keller Roland who is in town for night. Saw old Martha. When we got home Hugué finished circus book.

Thursday, September 14, 1933

Henry actually went off to Kindergarten! A peaceful house for me to hurry thru my work + get ready for my party. After lunch I began + made sandwiches + at two the guests arrived. Celia, Martha, Deborah, Winifred, Jo, Peggy, Grace, Peggy, Betty, Janet, Gen and Mary Craig. We all sewed + Winifred read a "cook" story aloud. We had tea and they all agreed it would be fun to start a reading class. I felt excited. After supper Mary asked Heinnie, + me to play bridge at her house. But we were all rather sleepy and got up early.

Friday, September 15, 1933

Cold & rainier - I did as little washing as possible and then got myself all dolled up. After an early lunch Nigie & I set forth for Altona to see Dr. Galbraith about Nigie's knee. He will have a slight operation on Tuesday! Then we had a great time shopping in the fine & tier! Spent $2.50! We had a soda & then came home. We stopped by Mrs. Bobby Walker's side in bed, a try from 5 to 10. Put the children to bed & dressed in my new chiffon to go to Nigie's birthday dinner. Aunt Maud was there, nice but rather ~~unpleasant~~ I knitted.

Saturday, September 16, 1933

More rain - Nigie went off early to see a man & took the children with him - I slept late and had a time catching up with myself. After lunch I worked at my book, writing a long delayed letter to Sarah Fleming. After feeding Nigie I settled on the davenport with my knitting but Nigie upset a bowl of flowers & then made another puddle. Ellen & Nigie had a bad battle & then Aunt M. & Maud came & I had to make tea. After supper Nigie and I left it all behind us & went to the college to see Claudette about in "Three comical women".

Sunday, September 17, 1933

I put the heavy blankets on the children's beds and immediately it began to get warm! But first of all I went to church with Ma. Walter home with Helen Blair who is moving to college tomorrow. Went to Ma's to dinner and afterward we drove to Zarnall again & this time I got my straw flowers. It is a gorgeous day now - air smells so good. Tom came to see Henrie just as I was patting kids to bed & he was still here when I finished so he had an impromptu supper with us. Filled flower vases & read newspapers. O.

Monday, September 18, 1933

Did my necessary chores & left the wash in order to go down town to get my Baby Show ads in the papers. Met Henry & Mr. Tuck showed us a printing machine. After lunch I wrote in my diary, fed Tiler and then Ma came & we sat on the porch, after I had done all the wash. Jo came & Hugo stopped in to warm me to be on time. So at 5:15 I was ready to go with him to the college. He took Aunt Maude, Henrie & Jo, had supper at the corner and went to early show of "Morning Glory" - Katherine's Nephew was marvelous. D. Fairbanks was good in it too. Ice cream etc.

Tuesday, September 19, 1933

Up at six thirty and at the Altona hospital at nine for Hugie to have his "mouse" removed. I slept on the porch until the nurse called me to help him dress. It hadn't been a mouse at all, but a broken cartilage & Dr. Goldsmith removed it all while son Hugie watched with only an anesthetic. He sat in back seat while I drove home. Got in time for lunch. But he couldn't eat much. He sat in day room all afternoon while I made a poster. I read to him too & Mike played around. He much improved by Dadeling.
After supper I made another poster and then helped Hugie to bed - it is beginning to hurt him.

Wednesday, September 20, 1933

Hugie had a most miserable night. He stayed in bed. I played nurse, did my usual chores and managed to get another poster made.
Bert Ward dropped in. After lunch I went down town in the car - Hugie with me - to put my poster in various windows.
Ted Nicks & Ma arrived.
Stuart just came to see Hugie.
Later we were alone & I made tea. He feels more & more miserable, poor soul. After supper I read to him but he was very restless - I a bit tired & cross myself & when Dr. Hoffman finally came & loosened the bandage & gave him some sleeping pills.

Thursday, September 21, 1933

Hugie had a very comfortable night & feels much better, but is still in bed. I did my best to sleep late, but too many things needed my attention. Did as little work as possible. After lunch Hugie & Deach took a nap. Henry woke me in the midst of it, crying because Jane wouldn't come tea! Finally I went to Reading Class at Deborah's - started Anthony Adverse by Hervey Allen - gave reading very nicely. Most delicious cake - got wash & newspaper on way home. Minnie had started children to bed. After supper - up here by Hugie in bed. Dread to mind - wind about wallpaper.

Friday, September 22, 1933

Hugie and Deach felt better after a night's rest. Another nasty day as he will stay in bed. After lunch we again kept & again Henry woke me, dread him! Ted Wilco, Ma came & we moved Hugie to the back porch where the sun has come out. He watched rabbits. Betty & Mrs. Shaskan came - only Betty stayed. Aunt Ma and came & we had a tea party on the upper porch. When they left Martha came bringing Hugie a jar of peaches. This is a dear. After supper I wrote names on letters Minnie made for me & sent to last year's Baby Show mother. Then I read a tip to Hugie & Ted saw not all my babies.

Saturday, September 23, 1933

More rain - I slept till eight without batting an eye and consequently was late all morning.
Hugie got shaved & dressed & went downstairs to lunch. I went next door to lunch with Ma & Aunt Maud - very nice party. After I had fed Hugie he went over there & he, Aunt Maud, Heinie & I played bridge - but with so many interruptions!! H. & E. were quite good on this for most of the time but Hike made a puddle and Hugie had a time keeping corny.
After supper - Hugie in living room - Peter & Charley came in.
I addressed the show letters & then Heinie beat me at P. - Bank.

Sunday, September 24, 1933

The Sun! Went to early church with Aunt Maud. And after break fast I was inspired by the sun to do a lot of
- was lying & so got too tired.
We all went to Ma's & Jim's.
Hugie putting his leg up on a chair. We took the family picture and then settled on the porch. The children - not Hike - were terribly pecky & Hike made a mess. I knitted fast & leave the sweater for Ma to knit. Dead tired by the time I got the children to bed.
And Hugie complaining. Hike Hike's zipper "over fire to dry & burnt it - everything wrong.
Tom helped me take wash out to hamper & then he played bridge with Heinie & Ma.

Monday, September 25, 1933

Hugie got up early & I drove him to his office at nine. I stopped on my way home to see Grace Orr & Rebekah Rouse about baby show. Bathed & fed Mike & got to work on another big wash but did not finish it before Hugie phoned for me to come for him. Took him back after lunch & called up people about show. Fed Mike & was finishing the big wash when Martha came. Was making tea when I had taps for Hugie again - also to get sweater which Ma can't fit. Ripped some of it. Chained Mike's bed to wall. Put all this in tub at once. After supper wrote in diary & knitted while Hugie ^{read} ~~was~~ ^{was}.

Tuesday, September 26, 1933

Hugie did a little too much yesterday and was tired so he stayed in bed most of the morning. I was glad to have him there again - I missed him yesterday. After lunch however I took him down and bought some things for the Baby Show. Fed Mike etc. and Ma came. Was very successful putting Mike on patty - maybe he will actually learn! Got Hugie later and he had a bottle of beer on porch with Mike while I answered a couple of baby show letters. After supper I had to go for the wash & saw Dorothy about the show. Then Hugie read to me while I mumbled endless little taps.

Wednesday, September 27, 1933

Everything going wrong as usual, refrigerator overflowed, mouse in trap, clothes line broken and Jim getting an awful cold. Hugie didn't go to work until after lunch. I made him go early, tho, so I could take a nap. Max came later and we sat on porch but I didn't do much. felt peepless & was always being interrupted - phone calls for baby show & getting Hugie - finally, by aid of Jim, got the children to bed & Jim arrives for Minnie's birthday party - a very good dinner put on by Max again. we gave Minnie quart of gin. we played bridge until my cold sent me up to bed - feel awful.

Thursday, September 28, 1933

My cold is much better today. Took Hugie to work, did my own work and went down again picking up Henry & Joe in auto. After lunch I took a small nap before going to Mary Craig's to the reading class. We sat on her porch - very nice. Peggy read. very well & we had a delicious tea. I did a few errands before coming home and found all three children yelling - nice welcome. As fast they were silent in bed. After supper I put strings in tags for baby show while Hugie read the rest of the Tam Dine Murder story. I am discouraged about my show. Not many babies have entered.

Friday, September 29, 1933

Took Hugo to work, bathed fed Niles, did a little washing & then went down town to buy the rest of the show prizes.
After lunch I drove Hugo to Altoona to see the doctor again - for 5 minutes! - the knee is doing beautifully.
But Hugo seemed to feel much better about it on the way home. A beautiful day and I loved driving the car.
The children had bathed themselves when we returned. After supper I got busy wrapping up all the prizes - like Niles.
And Heine came over to help me make the ballot boxes and finish up the odds & ends.
A lot of babies entered today. ^{Have}

Saturday, September 30, 1933

A beautiful day, thank goodness.
The telephone nearly drove us wild. Heine took & went for Hugo, but even then I thought it never got my clothes done right. After lunch Heine & I went to the Presbyterian chapel to fix things for the show. It looked nice when the babies began to arrive - they poured in - 80 of them! It was just as sorry as last year but everything went very smoothly.
Wagman & H. & E. brought Niles who behaved well until he saw Ma! He was in his class but we gave it to the next. All over by 5:30 - tired! - made 30.
Pete & Jo came to play bridge after supper - and Inez & Ed!

Sunday, October 1, 1933

Slept like a log until 8. Thank goodness baby show is over! Did my work as usual and then we went to Mrs. & dinner. Afterward I took Ma, Hugie & the children for a little ride while Dad took his nap. Aunt Maud came when we got back. Nicks was too cute for any thing walking around & playing with H. & E. We all sat & watched him, except that I also put stitches on for the skirt Ma will knit for Heine. Put the children to bed while Heine got supper. Went down to call on Cecelia - now in Blair House - but they were out. So we read the new papers.

Monday, October 2, 1933

Took Hugie to work & collected the Baby Show posters. Bathed Nicks & did a big wash before going for Hugie. When I took him back after lunch I slept to see Gen & got home just in time to feed Nicks. Ma came, and then Martha & we sat on the porch although it's slightly brisk. Nicks had a puddle & I soaked him & he was fussy thereafter. Gen came too & we all had tea before I bid good night to Hugie. My afternoons are truly not peaceful! After supper I was blissed alone and wrote up the notes for the papers & in my diary. Hugie walks a little without crutches.

Tuesday, October 3, 1933

Took Hugo down to work, did my own work and went for him a little early so as to deliver my baby show article to the newspapers. Ellen went with me. After lunch Hugo went over to listen to the ball game on Ninnie's radio and I went up to Mother's to get some more material of that dress she gave me. After I fed Mike Ma came for a little while. I made a belt for the dress and tea for Hugo. Finally got the child down to bed and after supper Hugo read a new Post serial to me while I knitted. Wonder what has happened to Betty. ^{haven't heard}

When Dad Ma & Niece F. went home the rest of us played

Wednesday, October 4, 1933 ^{bridge}

Did a bit of marketing when I took Hugo down town & also got the wash - then I ate my breakfast! Did my clothes quickly & Ellen & I went for Harry & took him to the S & W to buy Jean Blumey a birthday present. After lunch I put things away in 3rd floor fed Mike & got Harry ready for the party! a little early! and later Gus & Winifred brought him home in time he had got lost! I did a lot of mending. Mike good on back porch. Talk with Ellen on sex just before Ma & Dad Aunt Maude & Niece F. came to nice dinner. We played geography afterward - Ninnie came

Thursday, October 5, 1933

Thunder storm early this morning! Mr. Blaney took Henry & Kim to garden. When I took Hugo later it was clearing and it was a gorgeous day when Ellen & I went for our new folk at noon. After lunch I took Hugo to office & took fatty wrinkles before going to Peggy Warner's to reading class - Janet, Cat & Deborah read after much argument. I suppose I shall have to help them. Very nice tea - at supper time Mrs. Julia Curtin insisted we there but we got them to come here & had a very interesting game of bridge - Hugo & Diana actually ahead one time. Fun

Friday, October 6, 1933

Had to get Hugo to dentist's before nine. Worked leisurely after that. A nice warm sunny day. After lunch I sat over at Helen's with Hugo listening to the ball game until feeding time. After I had Hugo settled then came & we sat on lawn porch - Mike on upper - and Peggy & little Julia joined us - we all had tea - Hugo, too. Hugo held Mike who howled in rage - a noisy unsettled afternoon. But finally all was quiet and then Hugo & I left to go to call on the family & Aunt Maud. And a very pleasant call it was - o.

Saturday, October 7, 1933

Took Hugo to work and did a little marketing, all before my breakfast. Heide went for him later but I walked down to pay some bills & met them. After lunch I took Hugo back, arranged flowers & what not until time to feed him & put him on the upper perch in the sun. Ma & Aunt Maud came up there too and we had tea there later. As usual I didn't seem to accomplish much at the day fixing Hugo's old bands for Mike. After supper Hugo & I went up to Pete's for a game of bridge. We had highballs but did not get very high, too bad.

Sunday, October 8, 1933

Woke at 7:30 and while Ellen kindly gave Mike his milk I dressed & then got to early church. Ma & Aunt M. were there. Did my work as usual and at one we were at Ma's drinking cocktails as usual. Hugo was quite talkative at the table - Hindergarten must be helping him. Later Hugo drove to the club with Pete & I took Ma, Aunt M. & the children for a ride to Yamell & beyond - over the world's most terrible road - it was a night mare & I was a wreck. I had to get supper too, after finally getting the children to bed. Took the wash out - read the news

A. M. as usual. After lunch I took Hugie down in a hurry & then tried to take a nap but not with Jane & Henry running all over the house. After I had fed Niro here & Aunt M. came & we sat in the living room as it is cold & windy on the porch. I cut out an apron for Henry at kindergarten but that is as far as I got. After supper Hugie went to a hospital meeting and Aunt Maud, Jo & Jim came for a very pleasant game of bridge - I gave them food & sandwiches.

Tuesday, October 10, 1933

Coal being put in the cellar prevented Henry from going to kindergarten in time to meet Miss Hughes or I took him while I took Hugie. Did my work but in the midst of it had to go for Hugie & take him to Kiroanis. After lunch, however, it was so blissfully quiet I took a nap. I wasn't sleepy! Aunt M. came while I was feeding Niro & then Ma & we had tea & I actually finished Henry's apron. Aunt M. gave me $5. Hugie at proper party in evening - I wrote to Bea & Beau & in diary etc. and then read old Post till close.

Wednesday, October 11, 1933

Took Hugie to work, did some marketing & went for the wash before doing my chores at home. When I went for him at noon I took Ellen & got her some shoes. We missed Henry as the kindergarten had been to the airfield. After lunch I took Hugie down & then tried so usual in rain to take a nap. Ma came when I was feeding Mike & we sat on the porch sewing. When she left I got some plants I ordered so planted them. After supper I fell asleep in davenport! But woke up in time to read to Hugie for a while to practice for tomorrow! He has read O.K.

Thursday, October 12, 1933

Hugie drove him self to work and I felt quite lost without that job! A. M. as usual. After lunch I again tried a nap but Hugie rummaging for the rummage sale kept me awake, and Henry came in with his hands covered with tar! I finally got to Jos's to the reading class and read until tea time. It was not so bad - my reading, I mean - the tea was delicious. Poor Ellen had a terrific time making a "pu" tonight - my heart actually ached. After supper Hugie took me to the Pioneer minstrels - sat with Deborah Martha & Cat. I enjoyed it.

Friday, October 13, 1933

Hugie saw the doctor here yesterday so we don't have to go to Altona to see him today. The knee is fine. I pray it remains so. A.M. as usual Ellen & I met Henry & got him some shoes. Rode home with Hugie. After lunch I took a nap. fed Tuko & then Ma came. I arranged some flowers & settled down to knit but was not very well settled - I have too many children to settle, and that's funny, too. Heinie came in later - Jim being cool to her - she's too selfish. Hugie went to another poker party after supper - I read until 10 when I joined Heinie & ~~Henry~~ & drank

Saturday, October 14, 1933

A.M. as usual. After lunch I had a battle with Ellen when I wanted her to lie down to rest - I never saw any one so mad, but finally when I threatened her with no ice cream this P.M. she calmed down immediately. Then fed Tuko & he & Henry & a drink Ellen & I got Ma & went to the college children's shop to buy Ellen a coat - pretty red one, leggings & cap $12!! Took one of my dresses from there which Jim will buy for Jane. Then we all had ice cream & came home. After supper John & Martha came to play bridge. Martha & I were badly beaten - I was sleeping.

Sunday, October 15, 1933

Didn't wake in time for church.
Did my work as usual & Heinie & I knitted a bit in the sun - Heinie seems pleasant.
Then we went to Ma's to dinner and afterward dropt Hugie here to play with his rabbits while I took Ma & the children for a ride.
We stoppt to see Lawrence we talked about buying a dog for Hugie for Xmas.
Went back to Dad & talked dogs. Heinie got supper for us but didn't eat any on account of headache!
Hugie went to church. I read the papus & later Peterdapt in - he doesn't want any rabbits after all. Knitted.

Monday, October 16, 1933

Up earlier than usual Hugie is back on routine - so I finished my work early & went out in the garden at 11 to do a little trans-planting. Ellen helped me.
After lunch I took a nap till the arrival of Jane woke me & I got to work on Mike & was nearly there when Ma arrived.
He sat on the upper porch & I worked on the green & tan weaver & skirt, making it one piece. Mike was very cute. Hugie seems colder - stomach, I guess & went out for a while - I went over to Heinie's - then returned to sit by - silent again.

Tuesday, October 17, 1933

Such a black dirty wash as I had today! Thought I'd never finish - washed my flannel skirt too.

After lunch the house was blissfully quiet as I tried to nap. After I had fed Wilco he & I went out on the porch & I knitted. Then all the children appeared so I took a picture of the three. I do hope it's good.
Hugie came then & took us & Richard & Jane for a ride.

Beautiful day. After supper I knitted my dress while Hugie read another instalment of the Post-nuclear story. I also wrote in diary and ordered woollens for Ellen.

Wednesday, October 18, 1933

Knifed a little mending in with my usual chores today. After lunch I went down town with Hugie and had an hour & a half at the dentist's. Then I slept a bit & went to Peggy Warner's in a hard shower of rain. Tice visit there & a cup of tea. The sun was out again when I went across the street to call on Ma & Dad until time to go home to my brood. After supper ^{at Partridge House!} I made a sleeping bag for Wilco out of an old blanket I brought from Heine.
Hugie read to me - extracts news & digest.

Thursday, October 19, 1933

I did a big washing & then felt exhausted. But I got in a good nap after lunch before I had to go to Cato & Reading class. Many Craig read before tea. Stewart Lloyd dropt in & rolled his eyes around at all the women!
Then Winifred read some very rare passages. It is a strange book but interesting, interesting, and absorbing.
Put the children to bed & Hugie gave me a big drink of gin & read to me after supper while I knitted until Harry had a nightmare & I stayed up stories & read aloud. Hugie gave all the bunnies a good night?

Friday, October 20, 1933

Ellen didn't have to go to school (Teacher's institute) so she went to Birdington with Harry!! I did a little washing after getting Nicky to bed & then sat in the sun with Heenie knitting. After lunch I naturally got a nice nap, fed Nicky & sat on the upper porch with Ma. Heenie was with us for a while & then she & Hugie burned old papers of their mother's.
After supper Hugie went to another poker party & I stretched out on the claspport & read to my heart's content, but early to bed & never heard Hugie come home!

Saturday, October 21, 1933

Slept late & Heinie ate breakfast with me again - did a little work & then it was time to get ready to go with Hugie after lunch to the Penn State Schuylkill football game. It was good - State won 33-0. It seemed like old times to be off with Hugie in a crowd again. Looked in vain for a way to make me a new hat, but they are all so funny! At suppertime Martha asked us to bridge - Heinie volunteered to stay & at the last minute wanted to go out with Chas. but fortunately we could get a game. We had fun at Martha's we played & M. & I had the high scores! Especially me!

Sunday, October 22, 1933

Didn't wake in time to go to early church. After breakfast I attended to Hubert & the washing, fixed flowers for the table & then cut Ellen's hair before Dad & Ma arrived to dinner. Nice dinner. Dad bought bones for the children - much noise. Dad seemed to enjoy it. When he left Hugie took Ma & me & the children & Jane for a beautiful ride & Rebersburg. Ellen wanted another rage when I spanked her for lifting Hubert's supper over at Heinie's - read the papers, wrote in my diary & then heard Hugie & Heinie at noon - my back is aching.

Monday, October 23, 1933

Did my work as usual and managed to press & fix up Grace's dress to wear to N. Y. - letter from Beau says he's expecting us. After lunch I got to work covering screen for in the children's room. It is quite a job. Dad took & took him & the screen out on the upper porch where I was working hard when Ma arrived. After she left, screen finished I pinned together a hat to wear to N. Y. After supper I scrubbed it up so the family had approved. And knitted while Ma is read to me, but early.

Tuesday, October 24, 1933

Before I had done the washing I got inspired to paint some pheasant feathers red to go on my new hat - but finally was ready for lunch - Ma brought her over. Then I did a little mending by machine and lay down until feeding time. Raining today so Mike & Henry & I settled in the living room. Martha came after a while & Heine joined us at tea. After supper Hugo took Heine, pussy, Cat & me to the college - they went where that Hugo & Joan "have lost in" "Din no Angel" a rare movie which I enjoyed more than - for ages.

Wednesday, October 25, 1933

A. M. much as usual - After lunch I wallst down town with Hugie & had Edna Kibpatrick clean my teeth - very nicely.
I then bought jersey & made Harry a suit & went to Helen's office & staid until time for the two of us to go to Ma's reading class & serve a delicious tea. Aunty Rogen was there & I suggested to her that I return the baby picture she once gave me - something I've been dying to do for years! After supper Hugie read the last story while I knitted. Later I got one of my silly stories.

Thursday, October 26, 1933

While I was eating breakfast Hugie got into all kinds of mischief and I had to clean all that up besides planning lunch until Tues. & ordering the food, before giving him a bath!
Then I had an enormous wash - Ma came & talked me & helped me hang it out.
After lunch I did a few chores before going to Grace's & the Reading class - only five there & very nice. I finished the sweater. Put the children to bed, the wash away & mended some clothes. Jo & Pete dropped in with a feather for my cat.
Hugie came from crib before I had eaten my supper.
We packed & went away, they

Friday, October 27, 1933

Hugie and I left for N. Y. at 8:30 with Evagene staying & taking care of the children. It was a lovely ride - Idone for a while. We pulled into a nice little woods where we ate our picnic lunch. O! Then on our way pounding the concrete steadily until we reached N. Y. & watched for Holland tunnel signs. We got thru it & then worked our way thru traffic to 1018 Madison. Beau was not there. We stretched on our beds until he came. Nice & we time. Delicious dinner - fried scallops. Then we picked up Edwin Eberman & went to Earl's in Idone. Hays was there.

Saturday, October 28, 1933

Beau woke us when he went to work and after a big breakfast we went to Macy's & shop & to Franklin Simon's for shoes then walked over to Princeton club where we met Beau for lunch. He put us on street car & we went to see a wonderful play - Joe Cohan in "Oh, Wilderness." Then we took a bus ride until time to get all dressed up for dinner - lobster entrée this time. Florence Brilliance dined with us & went with us to see "Poppy Wood & Helen Ford in 'Champagne Lee,' a good musical. Then to the Hollywood cafe where we heard Rudy Vallee & saw the unblessed girls.

Sunday, October 29, 1933

Boys! was I sleepy when Bean woke us at 9:30 - we had breakfast with him & dropped him at the Armory on our way to St. John the Divine, which Hughie had never seen. Jane Boyd had dinner with us - scallop pie & turkey! - but she had to leave when we went to see Radio City - marvelous. We went in the huge Music Hall to see Leslie Howard in "Berkeley Square" & the very good dancing show they had there. Then Bean took us thru the Armory before supper at 10:15. He made Bean go out again to the Radio at the Garden where we all enjoyed very much. Bean afterwards + talk of staying longer.

Monday, October 30, 1933

Bean came in to persuade us to stay longer again but we packed up & left at 10:30. I don't know why. I felt blue at leaving. We went on a road Bean told us of & it was a beauty - no traffic except that going our way which was plenty. We finally stopped at a horrible little place for a sandwich & wished we were back in N.Y. I drove for a while then & fell asleep later. Got home at 6 and found everything in fine shape. Charlie & Kevin were here after supper & after we told them all about our trip we went down to tell Ma & Dad. Dad & Ma tried Wrote to Beau during evening.

Tuesday, October 31, 1933

It was expressing & hard to get up & dress the children at seven. Did a lot of work later & felt weary, especially as it is so warm. After lunch, which Hugie came home for. I took a nice nap until time to get kids up. Ma came and showed her my purchases which she approved of. Sent Henry off to Halloween party at Kinder garden as Indian. Did a little mending on the porch & carved pumpkins for Ellen. After supper who should walk in but Jack Barsman & John Atlee! They are on route to hunting camp. Pete came later and after I finished in Port.

Wednesday, November 1, 1933

Hugie off hunting at 6 - me to early lunch at 7.30. Did my chores, Ma dropped in & still I had time to write in diary before Hugie & Pete came to lunch. Hugie had shot but one rabbit & was afraid to tell the children! They went out again after lunch. I cut out a suit for Henry of the jersey I have & lost half yard & then Martha came. It was warm so I sat on front porch & many children milled around. Hugie came home at supper time with a grouse & a turkey! I noted that & had to dinner today immediately! Pete dropped in later - I was busy with the P.

Thursday, November 2, 1933

Hugie went hunting again & I had fond hopes of sleeping - forgot I had three children! A. M. much as usual. Hugie didn't come home to lunch. I sewed a bit by machine until time to go to Martha's to Reading class - not very interesting reading this time, but Wayne phoned that Hugie was bringing men to dinner & then Janet got telegram that little Charlie had said "Mama" at his special school. She burst into tears & we had quite a dramatic scene. Later Hugie came with 2 quans & John Little & Jack Brewman. It was very nice having them to supper. They left early & we retired early.

Friday, November 3, 1933

Did my work as usual and Ellen & I went down town - met Henry & drove home with Hugie. After lunch I took a nap, bed Niles & Ma came. As it wasn't nice out we went to the dining room where I sewed up Henry's suit. Who should suddenly appear but Dad! Walked all the way. Stopped my work to watch him watch Niles! When they left I finished the suit. After supper Hugie skinned & I got to work on picking feathers - I tackled the turkey & was $\frac{3}{4}$ done when Dad's covered worms!! I buried it in school room -

Saturday, November 4, 1933

Such a nice sunny morning I washed a few extra's - some pillow cases Ma gave me for table covers, etc - she dropped in during process, too. Ellen & Helen are at a picnic party at Hennie Widdowson's camp! Oh Hugie & I had a peaceful lunch.
I tried to take a nap but had many interruptions, including return of children, indignants at being brought home so soon.
Ted, Mike & Ie & Ma & Joatin the same on the upper porch, I sewing blue quilted dress for Canada years ago into one piece.
Joined Hennie & Betty G. at tea.
Got supper tonight. Pete & Hennie came to bridge. Hennie & I shared the truth about the Turkey - Hugie found it!!!

Sunday, November 5, 1933

Fortunately Nucle Will Horn called up at 7:20 - about insurance - so I was able to get to church on time. Ma there. Did my work later and cooked the 3 courses for dinner - Ma & Dad & Hennie were here and we all enjoyed them immensely.
Ted, Mike & Pussay Allison & her dog Dirk came in. It is raining & sleeting out. Mike came with Dirk. The four women played parchesi! Then I deserted to go to see a with Hugie. Got the children tired with Pussay's help. She is staying for supper at we were there, too. Hugie went to church. I paid millions of bills & wrote in diary. Read p.

Monday, November 6, 1933

A.M. much as usual - after lunch I figured out the size of wood to make Mantle & silver box for Rachel.
Then Gus & Jane came. Jane played with Henry & Gus helped me feed the goats etc.
Then the real business of the meeting began - Gus showed me how to make a slip cover for the square squatty chair. I made tea & Heine joined us. The chair certainly looks different. After supper Gus & Heine each went out - Dread a bit and then stitched the ruffle for the chair by machine. Hugie read me Phil's story in Field & Stream.

Tuesday, November 7, 1933

After I had finished my morning's work Hugie took me & Daddy to vote.
Hugie stayed to lunch and afterward I took a nap, fed kicks & Ma came. Martha came, too, when we were settled in the living room she brought me two cute dresses that were Kitty Woffis - still doing for Ellen.
Hugie came home from hunting with a rabbit - went to the club & then I had to borrow milk for my shredded wheat for Mrs. Lamm who seemed quite pleased! Then I had a beautiful quiet evening stitching by machine the Wednesday, November 8, 1933

Went to early church and got about my usual duties a little earlier than usual.
Hugie went to Harrisburg with some men about a new road. When Ellen returns the milk to Mrs. Cann she gave her a pie. After lunch I got to work on the second chair & the wings on it made it difficult. Mike seems to be a little upset & kept me busy & about a million children seemed to be asleep leaving the room open. It was tiresome. Late supper alone & then Hugie came, but left.
Then I go with Heenie to the Academy to hear Dr. Tom Davis son lecture on evolution

Thursday, November 9, 1933

Put Mike on a skin milk diet - he doesn't seem to feel so badly though.
After lunch I took a short nap & then went to Janet's to Reading class. It was cold in the house but she had a cheerful fire in the grate.
Miss Cliffe was there for the first time - she's been sick. Heenie came in for tea. After supper we went over to Heenie's see Pussay for a while & Hugie included Heenie's sister & then he & I went alone to call on Ma & Dad. It was very nice Dad seemed wonderful

Friday, November 10, 1933

Nike seems to feel better today the cute little fellow. But I feel dizzy & burn. I took a rest after lunch altho Henry was pestiferous. Ma came & we fed Nike & went downstairs where I worked half heartedly on covering the chair. The children fought like little cats when I put them to bed & I had to give Nike an enema but strange way when I was all there. I felt much better! After supper I fitted a collar for Evagene & then dressed in my pink ball gown to go to the club dance with Huguie, Heinie & Charlie. Lots of fun ^{home} at 7.

Saturday, November 11, 1933

Huguie went hunting as I slept till nine. Heinie had fasted with me & talked of her affairs with Charlie which I do not relish. Did my work & went down town. Heinie came to lunch. Took a little nap & got Nike up. He seems worse today and set on the davenport looking ~~and~~ pathetic. Ma was here. When she left I went to fix the church for Sunday. Huguie came home empty handed but full of talk of the snows to come when he was. I finished the ~~work~~ for the second chair.

Sunday, November 12, 1933

Gave Mike a little milk & water & put him back in bed while I went to early church. He seems very miserable so I called up Dr. Dale who prescribed oil. Mike did not like it. Did my washing. Returned Mrs. Carmis pie plate full of peanuts! Helen took charge of Mike while the rest of us went to Ma's anniversary dinner. Much & there too, my vice. Stork Ma's roses.
Later we came home to find Mary Hess, & all the first byones here. The children had a fine time together.
Poor little Mike wouldn't smile. Helen & Eugie went church. ^{I wrote to H. L. & D.}

Monday, November 13, 1933

Kept Mike in bed till I got up & sat him onavenport while I ate. He seems to be much better. When he gets fussy I gave him a little orange juice & put him back in bed. Wrote in my diary after lunch & helped Renny build a house of cards.
It is most miserable.
Fed Mike a little boiled milk & brought him down stairs. Ma & Martha were here. When we had tea he cooped for quibach so I gave it to him! I fitted the doavenport for its cover and after supper while Eugie read aloud I baked it together & got very tired.

Tuesday, November 14, 1933

Tuke is his jolly self again and I gave him a bath once more, during which he was not so jolly! Got there very early & started stitching the davenport cover. It is quite a task. Heine brought her lunch over. Henry went out to play in the snow and I worked at my cover till Tuke cried & I fed him a little early. He was good & I was able to finish - with the help of Heine & his Aunt who pulled out the bastings. After supper Heine & I went to Passy's & a most agreeable meeting of the Bridge Club. Martha & I won! Crawled into bed with

Wednesday, November 15, 1933

Made an effort getting up & going to early church with the thence-monies at 18°. Did my work early and Ellen & I went down town in the cold morning to buy her some goloshes. Had to take them back for a bigger size after lunch but Heine took me in the car. After I got Tuke up I got to work on the davenport pillows and had one back of a time something went wrong. I was glad when Heine & helped me up! And then I discovered the worst. - Heine & I went to a supper at the church. She came home & we went to call on ma & Dad. In taking cold

Thursday, November 16, 1933

Shauloo to Huguie & Evaguan. I slept till nearly ten! Wonderful! Bathed Mike & did a little washing & then mended a bead bag for Ma. After lunch Huguie dropped me at Ma's on his way hunting. She is feeling better. Then I went over to Winifred's to a very nice meeting of the Reading class. Betty West read for a while & we nearly died laughing at her. Dore that Reading class & Dore "Anthony Adverse" which we are reading. After supper I looked at a big book of photographs of the "First World War" by Stallings - a terrible & depressing affair.

Friday, November 17, 1933

Slept till Huguie went to work today but had time to do a little mending after my regular duties were done. After lunch Henry went out to play with his trucks & it was so quiet I took a nice nap. Ma came while I was feeding Mike. First time she's been here since Monday! She dandered my stockings. I sewed up the backs of the davenport pillows - my, it looks nice! Glen came to admire it & I made tea. After supper I read back numbers of the Post. Henry came over & Huguie resumed around doing odd jobs. Dore Huguie ^{more} more.

Saturday, November 18, 1933

Did the big washing which has piled up & was exhausted so often. Lunch I took a nap, with the children upstairs as it is raining. I fed Mike and settled with my knitting downstairs before Ma arrived with Beau. Nice to see him.
He brought fine presents for the children who also seemed glad to see him - or the presents. Bugie was hunting but got back in time to rush down to Uncle Fred's to dinner. Ma, Dad & Beau were there too. Later Phil came in & was very amusing about his work.
I knitted in a sweater for Mike.

Sunday, November 19, 1933

Dark rainy morning so I had a time getting myself to early church. And when I came home I had to get breakfast as Eva can't get off.
Consequently I had a busy morning as in the days of Ruth. Nice dinner at Ma's with Beau there. After I fed Mike Bugie took me a parachute jumper but it was too cloudy to use just came home & sat with Dad. Heine got up & helped me make a list of plans of things to buy at the ward sale. I also kept the molester's list - nothing work - & read paper. Took walk with Mike & saw molester's list.

Monday, November 20, 1933

Rushed thru my work to be ready for Bean to come over the list - but he never came & a nice sunny day & have gone down town! After lunch I got to work on the third chair to cover the hiker & later Mrs & Bean came. They liked my list. Jim afraid he'll buy too much for his apartment. Martha dropped in for a minute to see Heinnie who was over here. After supper Hugie & I went down to Mrs. Phil was there too. Too bad he isn't always so nice. At 9:30 Hugie & Odore Bean to look Haven. We had time for a beer before the train came.

Tuesday, November 21, 1933

Boop! Am I sleepy? Managed to get my work done. Hugie home to lunch so went hunting - & got a g. After lunch I stitched the linen pillow by machine & then fed Niles. Put him on the porch & was so sleepy I lay on the bed until Martha arrived & woke me. Got to work on chair but Jo & her children & then Mrs & Heinnie with making tea. I didn't get much done. And at Hugie & I went to the city to get supper & see Aunt Abner in "Masquerade" very good. He stopped at the Blain's store & call! Hugie

Wednesday, November 22, 1933

Washed my hair & was inspired to get it curled. Spent an hour planning for appointment.
Finally got my work done we had an early lunch so Hugie could go hunting - another grouse - and I was at "Lila-hang" at one to have a permanent put in the back ends of my hair.
I had my hunting - anything Hugie's pants - so it wasn't so bad. Rushed home at 4 to see how he was getting along with the children & etc.
And Blaine made tea - I was tired. After supper Hugie put together a silver box for Martha & I went down to see my parents - my nice visit.

we slept in at Martha's again after the card party. Then.
Thursday, November 23, 1933

A. M. as usual with the big Thursday washing.
After lunch I walked down town with Hugie & went to the hair dresser to have curls combed. Had time for a short call on Mrs. Dale the Dr. Upstairs - before I went to Reading class at Betty Gaste's. As we couldn't smoke I went to read which I did until 4 & then my head ached & house was very hot. Got home at 2 to 6, dressed & went with Hugie to Martha's at 6 where John gave us a drink before going to turkey dinner at club. Bridge after ward which wasn't bad at -

Wrote to Charlie Hipple & Jack Bausman about bird dog.

Friday, November 24, 1933

Simply couldn't get up us-ti-vine and then had an awful time getting anything done. We had a meagre lunch as I forgot to order from the store in time. Had my hair is a sight & I don't know what to do with it. After lunch I dressed myself to cover Martha's box & began to feel better. Could hardly wait to feed Mike to get back at it. Hugo took the screens off. After supper Hugo & Dad went to poker game & Ma came home. Martha & Aunt came home. Heine who was out.
I covered hall again with patches of the costume. Heine & P. came. Pie having Ma here

Saturday, November 25, 1933

✓ spent a lot of time after breakfast trying to arrange my cups - I'm afraid they are going to be a nuisance.
Got my work done just in time for lunch. Wrote in evening etc afterward, fed Tulsi & Ma came for the last time this year. Old man said I hate to have her go away. We munched & chatted & watched Tulsi's antics.
Ellen & Henry were out doors with the boys as usual.
After supper Hugie & I went over to Herbie's to a -very nice party - the Brig-stokes, the Jeffers & Gus & Bailey - we played cards & ~~my~~ names & had a fine time

Sunday, November 26, 1933

went to early church with Ma.
& she helped me as there was a lot to do. After breakfast I made beds, bathed & fed birds. washed & polished the children's muddy shoes. We went to Ma's to dinner. Hugie went for a walk with Charlie but so it was sort of raining the children & I just stayed with Ma & Dad. They were good, too & I knitted Hugie's box. Minnie got supper & went to church with Hugie.
Pete came in soon after they left and talked to me while I knit a coat to make a suit for Henry. Pete's a lovable sort of fellow. I was the same later on.

Monday, November 27, 1933

Hugie went hunting and I overslept - had a hard time catching up with my work. Hugie came home with 2 grouse - now we have plenty for thanksgiving. After lunch I took Minnie, Jo, Martha & Deborah to the college to see Lionel Barrymore & Marie Dressler in "Late Christopher Bean".
It was very amusing.
We had tea & a very good time. After supper I took trunks out of Ellen's bureau & then went to Ma's - all ready to close - very sad. Minnie joined me there & we had a very nice visit. But oh, I wish I could

Tuesday, November 28, 1933

At ten o'clock Hugie & I drove Ma & Dad to Lewis town to catch the train. We saw a lonely pheasant standing along the road. I hated to say good-bye - always afraid I won't see them again. We did a little shopping in the 5 & 10 store & got home in time for lunch. Afterward I got busy cutting a suit for Henry out of a coat of mother's.
While I was feeding birds, Margaret & her baby came we put the babies on the porch & had tea. When she left I rushed to the machine to stitch up suit. After supper Hugie stayed with children while I went to bed - did not

Wednesday, November 29, 1933 went to early church & wished Ma were still here. Did my chores and went down town.

After lunch I wrote to Jack again about the dog. Ted hikes & left him on the porch while I mended Hugie's hunting clothes.
Then we both came downstairs & I washed on Henry's suit so he can wear it tomorrow. Finished & lined it after supper, also pleached a groove, Hennie did one & Hugie the rest much to Hennie's & my ment. I also made a sketch of Hugie for Ma's card & wrote to Ma - how I wish she could be here.

Thursday, November 30, 1933, ^{got 2 grouse} ~~rather~~

Hugie went hunting and I got late. Had to help European shell chestnuts and so was needed to get my work done before lunch. Ted & Heinnie came to dinner. A delicious dinner of grouse and everyone enjoyed it including Buck F. Ted took down stairs & then we all sat & watched him - he was very amusing & cute. Later Heinnie & I took the children for a walk. Such a lovely warm day. Mike walked along Curtis St. & was so pleased with him self. Heinnie got supper & afterward Hugie left for his deer camp. Then I drew a Christmas card to have printed. Heinnie slept in Hugie's bed. ~~Done~~

Friday, December 1, 1933

Awful realization that the men putting on the new roof were making too much noise for Reading class - so I got Deborah to take it off my hands. Went down town & took the children with me. After lunch I wrote in diary & then went to Deborah's - a very nice meeting. When it was over Heinnie & I went with me to the college to see Nathaniel Hepburn in "Little Women" - it was perfect! Sat beside the jolly Blaine. Passed a bad wreck on the way home. Heinnie & I got ourselves some supper & then went to bed, still ~~nothing~~ in that excellent picture

Saturday, December 2, 1933

Damn this roof - just when Heinie & I would have a chance to sleep late. We had healed feet together & then did our chores and then went for a nice walk thru Armoir Gap.

It was so unusual for me.
She had lunch here. I plucked a grouse before feeding Mike & cut the children's hair afterward. Then I darned a pile of stockings. Hugie came home before supper - tired - but not half so tired as he was at 2 after the community dance & the shell cross. That was a great affair & I loved it.
Even thought it a great joke when George Valentine 70 or more, kissed me.

Sunday, December 3, 1933

cool, but it was hard work getting out of bed at seven.
But after Mike was dressed I slept again until nine.
Did my work with Heinie over here talking over the party. She had dinner with us - none other.

It was a rainy day so when I brought Mike down stairs I sat at dining table & covered little boxes for James presents. Ellen & Henry worked there with me.
At supper I had a battle with Mike who refused pick up his bit. Went to church with Hugie - Dickie rather sang! - nicely. Charlie here - we talked new bank

Monday, December 4, 1933

Back to normal again - I fed Wilco before my bath - did my chores as usual & went down town to cash Hugie's check & pay my bills. After lunch I put my money in a box & hid it & figured out my accounts.
I am going to save $1.20 - a month in bank taxes! After I fed Wilco I did some mending upstairs until Bartha came. Then Wilco & I went downstairs to join her. Ellen stayed with us too, when she came home.
After supper I went down to say good-bye to Gus & Bobby who leave for the winter. wrote a letter to

Tuesday, December 5, 1933

I hope Wilco soon learns to feed himself - I hate getting out of bed to do it. A. M. as usual Hugie came home to lunch & went hunting for deer afterward. I fed Wilco, put him on the porch while I did some ironing and finally got to work making Ellen a nice little jacket out of her old gypsy suit. Tried it on her in spite of protests - she doesn't seem to be feeling so well. After supper I did some more ironing, wrote up my diary, ordered a few Xmas presents, read a little, talked to Hugie and went over to see Heime & Jo when they came in. Bed early.

Wednesday, December 6, 1933

A.M. as usual. Went down town & bought material & made Mary a luncheon set - a sudden inspiration. After lunch I made two blue pillows for davenport, bed suite & then Janet & little Janet came. I mended my fur coat, got tea & finally got to the luncheon set. Nice visit with Janet. Heinie came in & said there is chicken pox at school. When I gave Ellen her bath she was spotsy! Put her to bed over at Heinie. She seemed all right so we left her with Evagren & took Heinie & Pursey to see Doctor Wink in "Cradle Song" very sad but must also be nice.

Thursday, December 7, 1933

Ellen has more spots - kept her in bed, kept Henry from kindergarten and called up Dr. Conman (Dr. Hoffman away) & called all the Reading class. They are not afraid. Had not finished my washing when Dr. came - & I had on like Hoffman better. I finished washing & got ready for Reading class & arrive. Ellen good by Mary. Evagren watched & made sandwiches & gingerbread for us. Key goes. Ellen doesn't seem sick. After supper Hugie took down town to see Charles Laughton in "Henry VIII" a most excellent movie. Fine

Friday, December 8, 1933

Oh, a more peaceful day, I trust. Ellen is fine and I gave her a bath in Kevin's tub after I got Mike & her. after lunch I was dead tired & sleepy so I took a nice nap & felt fine afterward. Mike & Henry played out on the upper porch and I sat with Ellen & we each wrote to mother. When Kevin came home I brought Mike in & did some mending & then just sat & rocked Mike - what joy - he is so sweet. After supper I wrote in my diary, etc. and worked on Mary's embroidery set, altho I don't think I like it - ^{Henry's}

Saturday, December 9, 1933

Ellen got Kevin up a couple of times in the night, but I could not bear her! Slept late as Hugie was off early deer-tunting. Kevin breakfasted with me & was around Ibattered Mike & Ellen. She also had lunch here. I decided to do Mary's set differently & started all over again after lunch in Ellen's room. After I fed Mike he & Henry played on the porch & then in 3rd floor.
Martha brought K. Wolfe in for a few minutes. Helge polished his car case broken, so I ate shredded wheat he appeared later with the newly & we hid until 12!

Sunday, December 10, 1933

Poor tired Huguie slept till nearly 11! - mean while I was attending to his duties & let the little fire burn out & had to relight it - such a morning! But finally got two of my children bathed & cared for & my duties done by dinner time. Letted Fred & Wilke & put him out on the porch with Henry while I sat with Ellen & Heinie - she made tea for us but soon the boys grew restless & I let them come in & we three went down to the living room - I still sewing. Heinie got supper, Huguie went to church & she & I gossip ed & I wrote up my diary & what not, looked at some books.

Monday, December 11, 1933

Ellen is getting along very nicely - if only the other two don't get it! I bathed Wilke & then Ellen & did a big washing. After lunch I went up to Ellen until time to feed Wilke & then as it was too cold & snowy outdoors I put him on the third floor with Jimmy who looked after him very nicely. Went back to Ellen with occasional trips to third floor. After supper Heinie & I went to Martha's to a very nice meeting of the bridge club. It was the first time I've been out of the house since Huguie's night and it felt like quite a nice change.

Tuesday, December 12, 1933

Up early & got my washing done before bathing my youngest & eldest. Then I went down town to do some fines shopping & took Henry with me. Angie came home with us. After lunch I felt impelled to take a nap.
Fed Mike & left him in care of Henry who taught him & blow a horn & to creep down stairs! I did not feel so well but they were good & Ellie read to me! She is up & dressed today. But then all I did & went to the Kiwanis Ladies night with Angie & the Burn Walkers. Our car is still broken. Later I wrote to Ma & J. Buchanan ^{who has} ~~for his~~

Wednesday, December 13, 1933

Hugie went hunting early with the Stovers and I & Evagren do all the work & sleep till nine thirty!!
 Did my chores as scantily as possible. After I sat with Ellen who had to me again while I slept. Henry wanted to go out later but Mike was very good by himself to run around floor Finally it came their bed time. Hugie didn't come & I began to worry but then he showed from Snowshoe. Late & he came at 8:30 & I gave him his supper - & how he ^{perhaps} ate came in & he ^{an} ate

Thursday, December 14, 1933

Slept a little late this A. M. and attended to my duties later. We got a tiny turtle in the mail from Miami. One + "kips" painted on its shell?
I thought it was dead but it soon thawed out + began crawling every where so I fixed up a home for it! But Mike didn't like it later when I showed it to him.
He + Henry played very nicely while I sat with Ellen. After supper I addressed a few distant thank cards - Pete came in to talk to Hugie about hunting.
And I worked on Mary's doilies until my shoulder ached. Herbie was here too.

Friday, December 15, 1933

Hugie went hunting again for the last time, thank goodness!
But I had a fine time sleeping while Evagran change. Later I bathed two children + did some washing. After lunch I read to Ellen until two when I went with Cat to Mary Craig's nice meeting of the Reading class. We got Anthony adverse out of office much to our relief!
I finished Mary's doilies and after dinner I ironed them and then went to the 3rd floor to clean up the mess Mike has made up there - bags everywhere!
+ there's a lot of trash.

Saturday, December 16, 1933

Up early, did my washing before bathing Mike & let Ellen bathe herself as I was able to go down town. Mary went with me. After lunch I framed a snapshot of Hugie & sent to Mary, fed Mike & then got to work tying up the Canadians & Florida packages as they had to go today. Heinie took them later & I went over to Ellen & we tied up more presents.
My, but that is a tiring job. Finally got all the children to bed - after supper Hugie & I went to the Bishop's reception at the Parish House - rather boring.
Wrote to Mr. Jean Blanchard.

Sunday, December 17, 1933

Managed to go to church to see the Bishop confirm eleven mostly grown-ups.
Then I walked down town with Hugie. Good sermon on reading the Bible - just the beauty spots. After lunch dinner I fed Mike & then took a pile of conchating flowers over to Heinie where I painted them bright colors. very pretty.
Heinie got supper, Hugie went to church. Stanley came in & I got him to take me & the wash to the Haupts - our car is still broken down. Then Hugie & I went to call on Beckley Talentine who's mother died.

Monday, December 18, 1933

A nice sunny day so I got busy with my washing & side giving Ellen & Mike each a good scrubbing.

Christmas packages are arriving and it is beginning to get exciting. After lunch

I wrote in my diary, etc, fed Mike and put him in charge of Henry, who receives a package of candy cigarettes from Ma as reward - Ellen got a present of some paper dolls from Ma + also a tiny circus from Kitty Wolf. I darned many stockings and continued even after supper. Pete dropped in - Hugh is doing household chores. I cleared out downstairs toy. Calie

Tuesday, December 19, 1933

Soon after breakfast Henry wanted to lie down - my heart sank - but later he felt better & insisted on going down town with me. Among other things we bought his present for Ellen. Coming home I dropped + broke an expensive bottle of Tonic for Ellen - I could have cried.

After lunch Henry had to lie down again - while I tied up some Xmas presents - but was able to play with Mike later. I went over to Ellen + fixed Aunt M's coming dress & fit me. At supper time they had a temperature of 101³ + spots!! After supper Hugh is & I addressed Xmas cards.

Wednesday, December 20, 1933

Kept Henry in bed - no doubt as to the fact, let Ellen get up for breakfast & come over here.
Put Mike to sleep in his old pen in the den! Evagran cleaned linen closet & turned Ellen's accumulated stuff over.
After lunch I helped the children write letters to Santa, fed Mike & started mending sweaters, but Martha came to get me to sew up a large red dress sticking for her.
Hennie came & made tea.
Later I went to the Shufflers to see the dog which just arrived.
It is a beauty. I can hardly wait till then! After supper I wrote to me & printed while Hugi paced around thinking we ^{to do}

Thursday, December 21, 1933

Washed bedpans, bathed Mike & Henry - the latter very spotted & a temp. of 101° (Ellen's only 99° when she was at this stage) did my washing & rushed downtown to meet Hugi to buy presents for the children.
After lunch I sat with Henry a little before going to Peggy Warner's to the Reading class.
I read a while but it wasn't very interesting today. Then I finished Hugi's box which Mike can give him for Xmas!
Home in time to put my "name-my-ing" crown to bed. After supper I took Hugi up & stairs to see the things we have for the children - play and then I got to work on a ballet dress Ellen wants!

Friday, December 22, 1933

Henry had a restless night but seems better this morning so I think the "crisis" is past. Bathed him & Noko & did an enormous washing. After lunch Hugie and I set forth on our annual spree for the Xmas tree! We looked for a nice store for the little pen & I found a lot of lovely moss I brought home! We found a nice tree & green pine in our same old place and had a most pleasant afternoon, O! Heinnie had a word with Eugene. After supper I finished Ellen's dress given her quite a rest with brilliant! She will love it. Also fixed

Saturday, December 23, 1933

Henry so much better that I let him get up & dressed after his bath, but he stayed up stairs. I went down town and nearly went wild ordering food for tomorrow & the party & Xmas! After lunch I pedicured & manicured, fed Noko who waited for a walk with Ellen! Henry played with his train & Martha came & she & Heinnie & I had tea downstairs. Tied up the last of my presents - Hugie came with word that Beanie's train is taken off! Now, what! After supper I started a long letter to Ma & helped Heinnie make nice candy for stockings.

Sunday, December 24, 1933

Beau called at 8:30 saying he was taking two from Fork Haven & Hugo & Ellen went down the road to meet him. I was so glad to see him. He settled him self down in Heinie's back room & I bathed Tiko & Henry & did the wash. We had a nice roast beef dinner & went to his & got clothes for Beau & later to walk with Hugo & Charley. Heinie went out, too so I was left with the children to decorate the house & set the table. Put the children to bed & then Pete & Jo, Cat & Kewey & Charley & Brickley came to a buffet supper - we had fire, trimmed the tree & robot not out at 11:30 went to church - beautiful as always. Wind but ^{fine &} _{clear}

Monday, December 25, 1933

At 7:45 - the children opened their stockings on our beds, Tiko cuts. We woke Bo & Heinie to go downstairs with us. So many presents to open! Then Heinie brought the dog in - Hugo looked darling & embarrassed. Breakfast somehow & somehow I got Tiko to bed. Then Pete & Jo & lots of others came for egg noggs. Finally they all left and we had our turkey dinner - Heinie here, of course. Boy Hugo took the dog walking - Heinie took Tiko E. & H. at Richards as I slept! Finally put tired children to bed. Supper of left overs. Agnes came to stay while 4 of us went to Bill Seig's for cocktails. At 10 we took Bo & Fork Haven to train then to Club to dance - nice until I got weary. ^{Heinie} _{was} ⁱⁿ _{the} ^{room} _{at} ^{the} _{house}

Tuesday, December 26, 1933

got Wilco aroused & then slept till nine. Dragged myself thru my duties and after lunch took a nice nap.
After I fed Wilco I discovered Jack the dog was gone! But Pete brought him back. Put him in the house & he was fairly good. He is a dear dog.
Made a chart of our parents deed to Ma. Puddy dropped in & I was glad to see her - today has been such a let-down after all the excitement of the last few days. Kevin's went to Beech Creek last night with Mamie & Bill. After supper finished a 20 page letter to Ma while Louie shovelled snow then we sat & watched Jack

Wednesday, December 27, 1933

got up promptly today & after bathing Wilco I took a big wash. It is awfully cold out doors & the child drea played in morning. After lunch I took a nap, fed Wilco & then the fun began!
Wilco & Jack taking turns making puddles & all three children taking turns yelling when Jack nipt at them in a friendly way.
Managed to get one short letter written to Jack Boersman. After supper Hugie & I drove to Beech Creek - poor Hugie, while Rolo has taken away some of their super glue.
Caught out and caught Kevin

Thursday, December 28, 1933

Did my work as usual then Helen, Ellen & I went down town & took Jack with us on his leash - he loved it.
Hugie let him home & he loved it! After lunch Jeddie Dingley dropt in & was still here when I left to go to the market down at Grace's. A very nice meeting at which I darned 12 pro. stockings!
When I got home I found Hugie building a dog house. He worked on it again after supper while I wrote to Aunt Maud & Lily Beall. Then I settled in down front to read the books which I gave as "winter time present" by Margaret Ayer

Friday, December 29, 1933

Again I took Ellen downtown before lunch to get her some new leggings & again we couldn't get any - that this town! But Jack enjoyed the walk. After lunch I took a nap again - I must be tiresome! - and after feeding Hugie Helen and I played Russian Bank!
The children got along
- much better with Jack - Ellen was over at Margaret's with Geraldine! Mrs. Withers & Richard came in when we were having tea. After supper I started to knit Hugie another pair of socks while he read his new dog book. I was ^{he is so very} enjoying it.

Saturday, December 30, 1933

It is frightfully cold these days below 0° at night & hardly above 10° at noon. Otherwise, A.M. as usual. I put away some Christmas things before church, took a nap afterwards & mended & mended down-stairs with my mending. Helped Heinie renovate an ice dress. Hugie took Jack for a walk so it was comparatively peaceful here. After supper Heinie, Charley, Hugie & I struggled thru the ice to the C. Club to a nice dance given by the Brig-stocks & Dr. H. coll. I enjoyed it more than any for a long time, altho Geo. Valentine was a pest to me. Home thru the ice at twice!

Sunday, December 31, 1933

got the children up & then I slept till nearly ten! Bathed Nuko - poor little dear is suffering from an alkaline condition. Did a little washing. Phil dropped in & was rewarded by a drink just before dinner. Heinie had dinner with us. Ellen wrote a letter to Lilly & then she & Henry went out to coast. Hugie took Jack for a very long walk & came home all enthusiastic about him. Heinie & I played R. Runk rather sleepily. I wrote in my diary & to Ma & chatted with Heinie while myie is at church. There's a P. at club.

Things presents received.
